'We dedicate to you . . . '

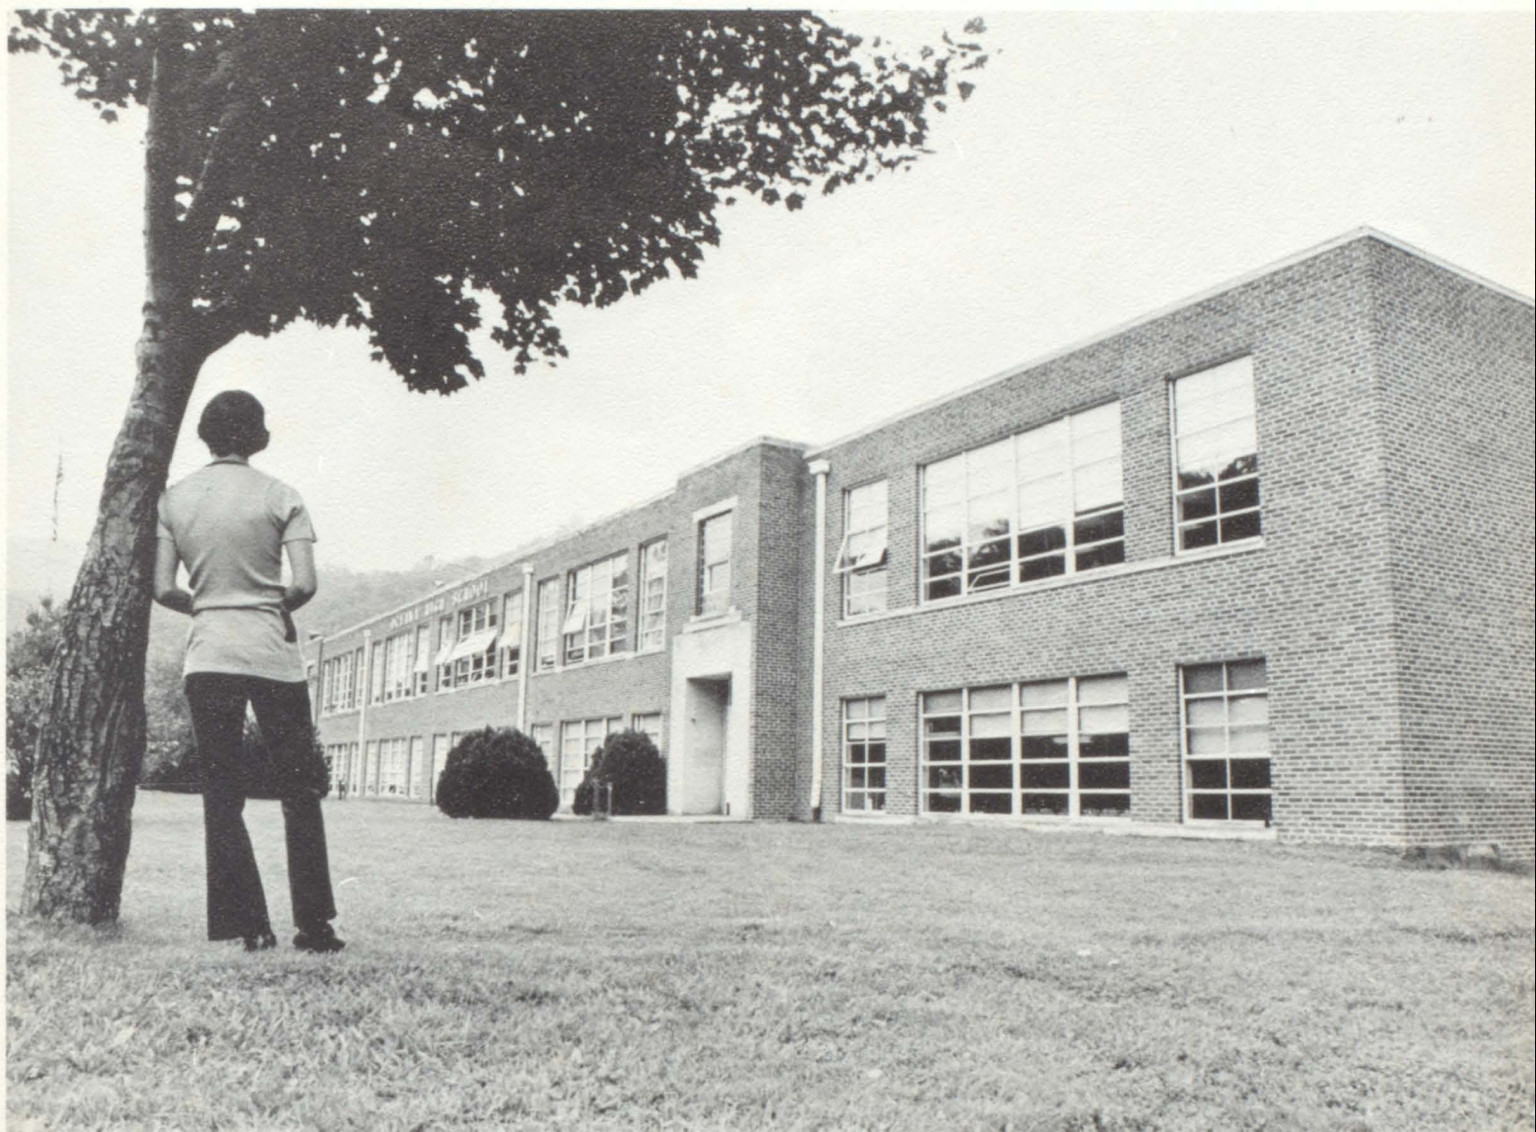

We, the yearbook staff, dedicate the 1972 Oceanian to Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Barrett, who are retiring this year. They have long dedicated themselves to Oceana High, its students, and activities.

Mrs. Barrett has taught here since 1941. She has served in many capacities through the years- as teacher, librarian, senior sponsor, club adviser, yearbook and newspaper sponsor, and dramatics director.

Mr. Barrett has taught at Oceana High longer than any other teacher. Since 1938, he has taught all phases of math and science, organized and sponsored clubs, and assisted students in many ways.

With their unselfish outlook, the Barretts have worked to better their community, to serve their church, and to lend a helping hand to others. We have turned to them for advice—for comfort—for understanding.

The Barretts will always be a part of Oceana High.

It was a great year

What can you say about a year at Oceana High? That it was great . . . that it was exciting . . . sometimes disappointing . . . that it was profitable . . . that it was wasted . . . that it was success . . . that it was failure.

What can you say about a year at Oceana High? Each year has its own highlights . . . in classroom . . . on athletic field . . . at class meetings and assemblies.

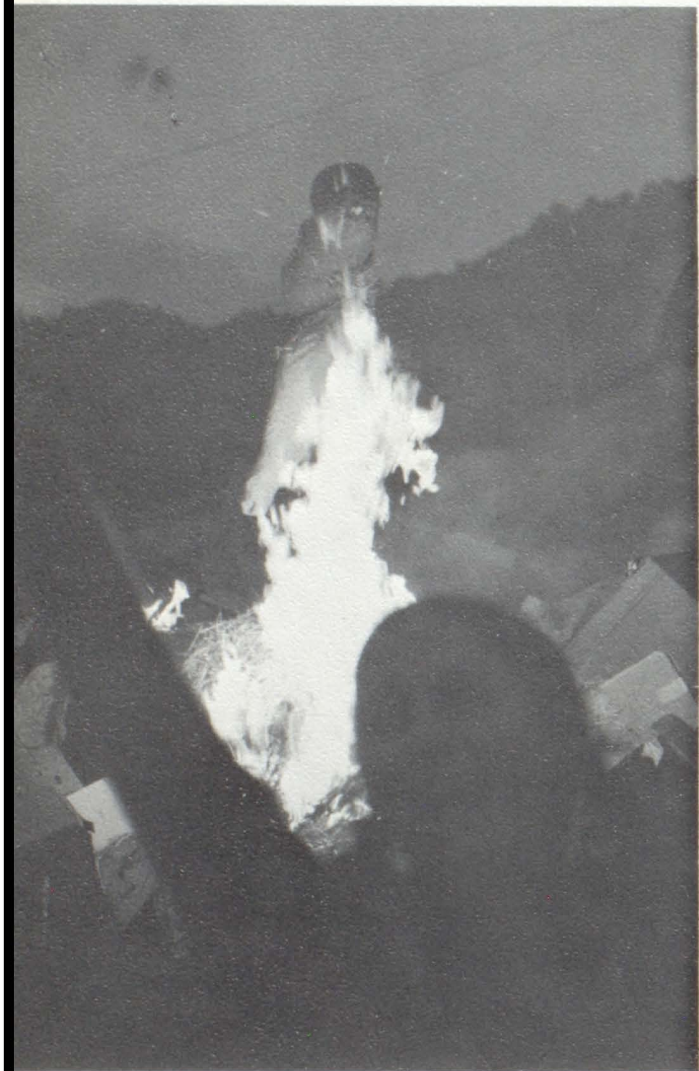

This year was something special . . . a year we'll all remember. What made it special? Pep meetings . . . clubs . . . basketball games . . . the AA football playoff at Beckley . . . winning all the track meets . . . hard work and study . . . rain at homecoming . . . Christmas decorations . . . movies . . . teachers . . . friends . . . fun.

It was a year of victory . . . a state track championship . . . state runner-up in football . . . a great record in basketball.

All these, along with our own personal experiences, made this year a very special one. It was a great year.

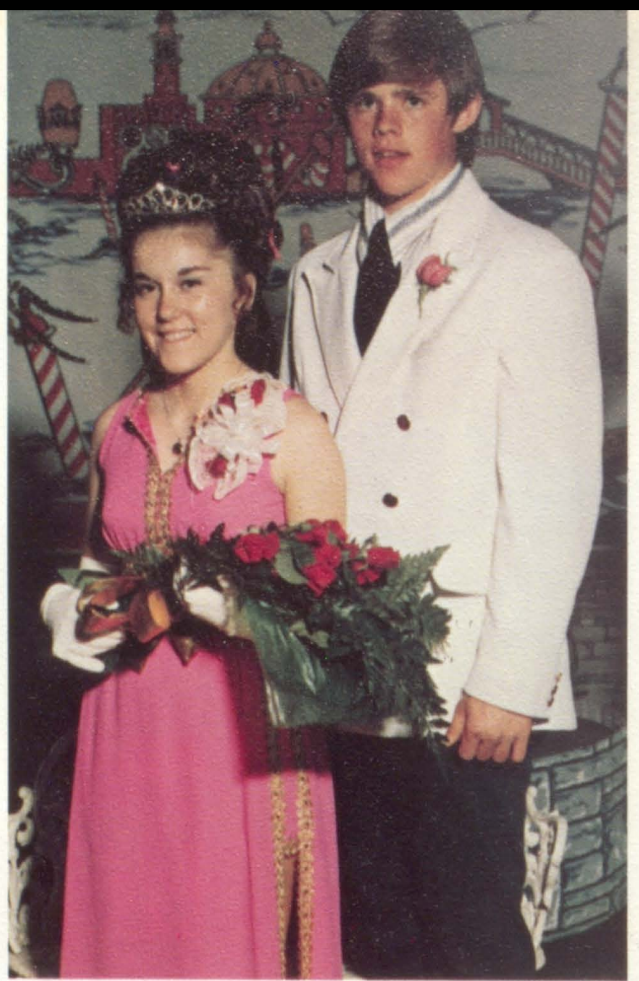

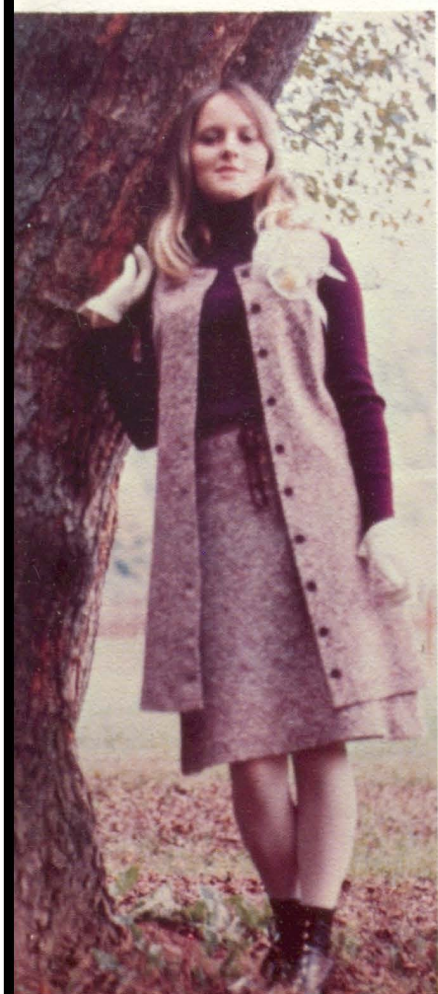

HIGHLIGHTS

Cheerleaders Carol Justice, Connie Rollins, Sue Willard, Debbie Walker, Melinda Cook, Kay Halstead, and Susan Canterbury lead a giant homecoming pep meeting before the Iaeger game.

Homecoming brings on the action

Mark Walls gives the football field a final manicure.

Everyone turned out for the huge pep rally.

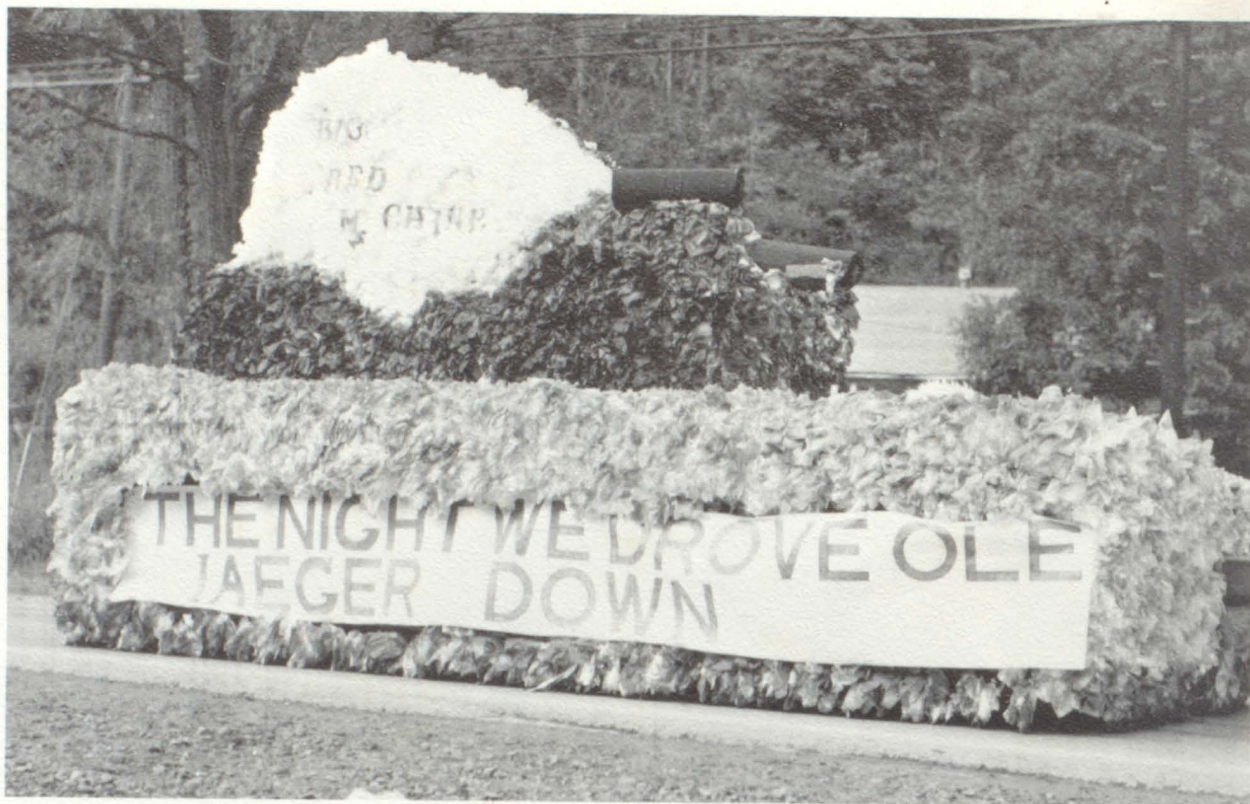

Will it be finished for the parade? Juniors race against time to complete their big red apple.

The giant bonfire and the informal parade were lots of fun.

David Lester beats drum for the freshmen.

For the third straight year, seniors took top honors in the float contest with the big red machine.

We love a parade

Majorettes lead off the annual homecoming parade which began in lower Oceana and continued to the high school.

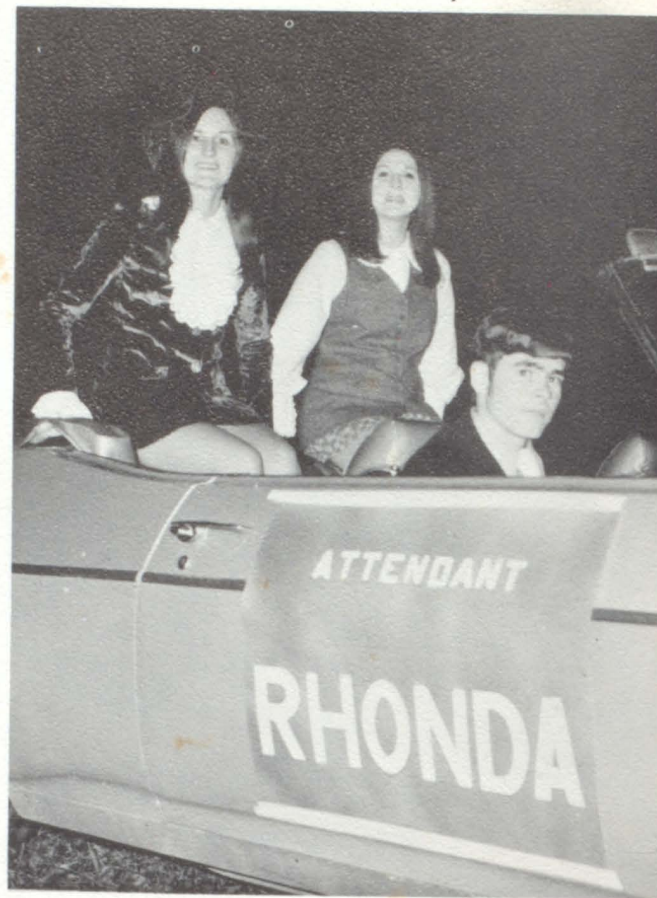

Junior high cheerleaders find being part of the homecoming parade an exciting event. They are Robin Nottingham, Laura Conley, Joetta Aliff, Pam Holland, Linda Cook, and Scherrie Mullins, who ride in the pep section.

Tired of it all? This onlooker takes a rest.

Attendants Tyann Meeks and Cathy Justice and escorts Jeff Hartley and Ralph Hall get set for the coronation ceremony.

Attendants Rhonda Daniels and Teresa Cook arrive on the field with Jerome Blankenship.

Cheryl Aliff crowned queen

Highlighting the Homecoming festivities was the coronation of pretty Cheryl Aliff of the senior class.

She was crowned by Libby Stewart, last year's queen, in halftime ceremonies.

Her attendants were Tyann Meeks, Teresa Cook, Rhonda Daniels, and Cathy Justice. All are seniors.

Escorts from the senior class were Jeff Hartley, Jerome Blankenship, Ralph Hall, Kerry Lilly, Norman Daniels, and Richard Cook.

The crownbearer was little Kim Huffman who was escorted by Todd Morgan.

Following the game, a dance honoring the royal party was sponsored by the band and journalism students.

Queen Cheryl Aliff and escort Richard Cook listen to the band's serenade. With them are crownbearer Kim Huffman and escort Todd Morgan.

Queen Cheryl and her senior attendants watch happily as the Indians defeat Iaeger in the muddy homecoming game.

North Central team re-evaluates school

Re-evaluation of Oceana High by a team representing the North Central Association of College and Secondary Schools was completed in April.

The team spent two days visiting classrooms, inspecting school facilities, interviewing students, and hearing reports from faculty members.

Mr. T. J. Hardin, principal of Kermit High School, headed the group of nineteen visiting educators.

Oceana was admitted into the association in 1954 and was re-evaluated in 1960 and 1965. The present policy requires re-evaluation of member schools every seven years.

The team found that Oceana High has maintained high standards in its curriculum and teaching facilities and that the performance of its graduates is satisfactory.

Checking school facilities with North Central team chairman T. J. Hardin, principal of Kermit High School, are Mr. B. R. Bailey, assistant superintendent of schools; Mrs. Ruby Ford, vice principal; Mr. Leon Childress, president of the Board of Education; and Mr. James Pizzino, superintendent of schools.

At the close of the two-day check of the school by the North Central evaluating team, teachers relax while waiting to hear Mr. Hardin report on the re-evaluation. Each teacher worked on a committee preparing for the check.

Juniors Debbie Trent and Cyrus Stovall portrayed Maw Frye and Pappy Popoff, two lonely hearts separated by a raging feud between their families.

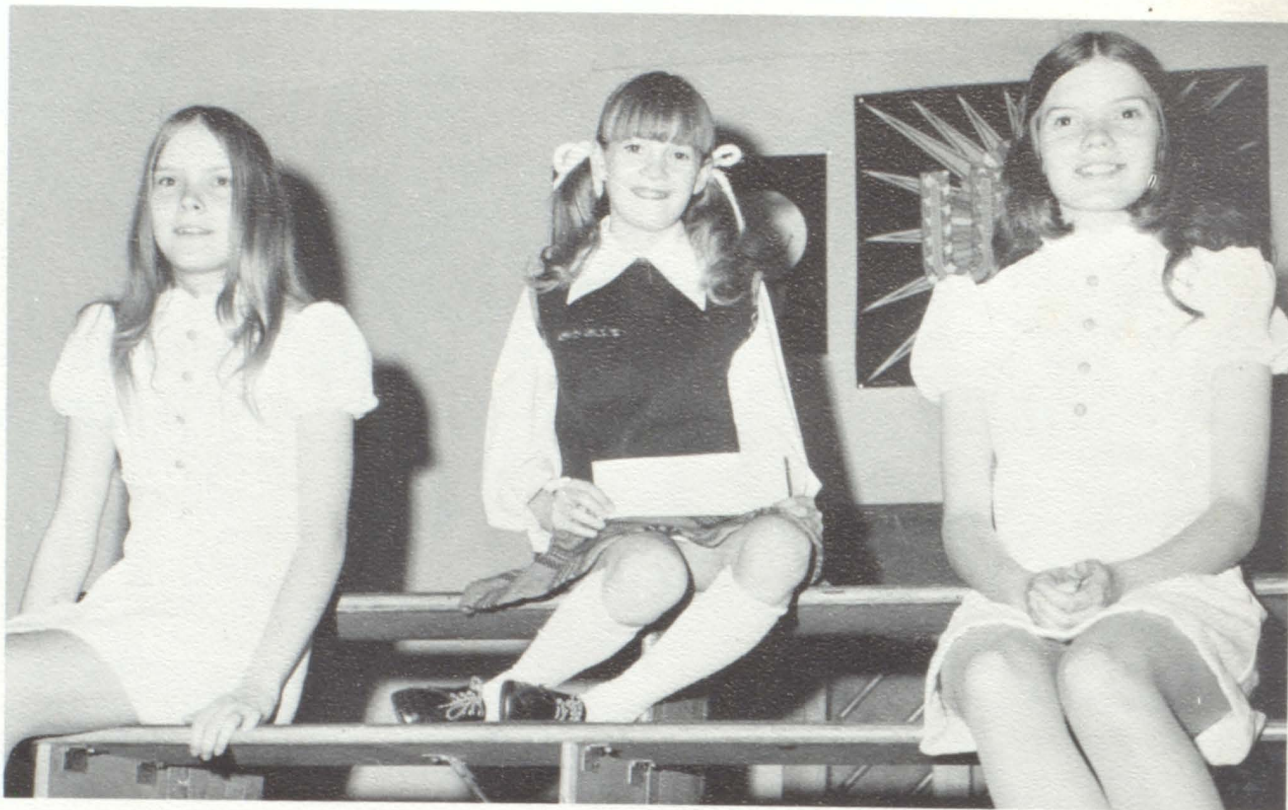

Sue Terry as Rosie Belle Frye, the terror of the hills, and Debbie Meredith, as Emmy Frye, had trouble over just about everything, including boy friends, guns, and skinny chickens.

Hillbillies abound in 'A-Feudin' Over Yonder'

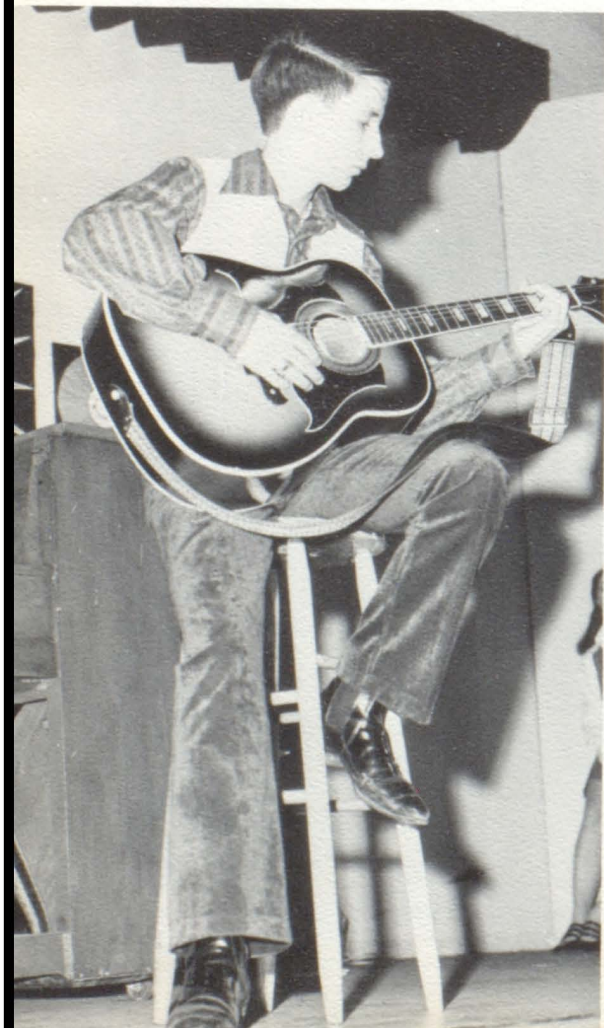

Happy hillbillies in "A-Feudin' Over Yonder" were Mark Boshell, Billy Summers, Debbie Trent, Martha O'Neal, Kay Halstead, Danny Harless, Cyrus Stovall, and Nancy Fletcher. The play was presented in May.

Walls Trio, a combination of twins Brenda and Linda, and Virginia Mae, won top honors in the seventeenth annual variety show. They are the second trio from the Walls family to win the talent contest.

Clacy Lambert sings a popular ballad.

Talent sparkles in variety show of '72

Singers Debbie Trent, Patty Bailey, and La Verne Miracle made a hit.

Senior Ronnie Pelphrey sets a fast pace with his drum solo.

To joke or not to joke—That is the question facing Richard Cook, the master of ceremonies.

Third-place honors went to the Advent Christian Youth Choir, organized and directed by the Reverend Robert Story, who is also pianist for this outstanding group.

Linda Adkins sings solo.

Leaders get awards at annual assembly

Scholastic and activity awards were presented to school leaders at the annual awards assembly.

For the first year, the assembly was held in the evening in order that parents and guests might be able to attend the event.

Mr. James Pizzino was speaker and Principal Ira Cook and Mr. Tom Goheen presented the awards.

The assembly was sponsored by the newly organized National Beta Club.

Rhonda Daniels, National Beta Club president, introduced Mr. James Pizzino, county superintendent of schools, and Principal Ira Cook at the honors assembly. The club planned the program as a service project.

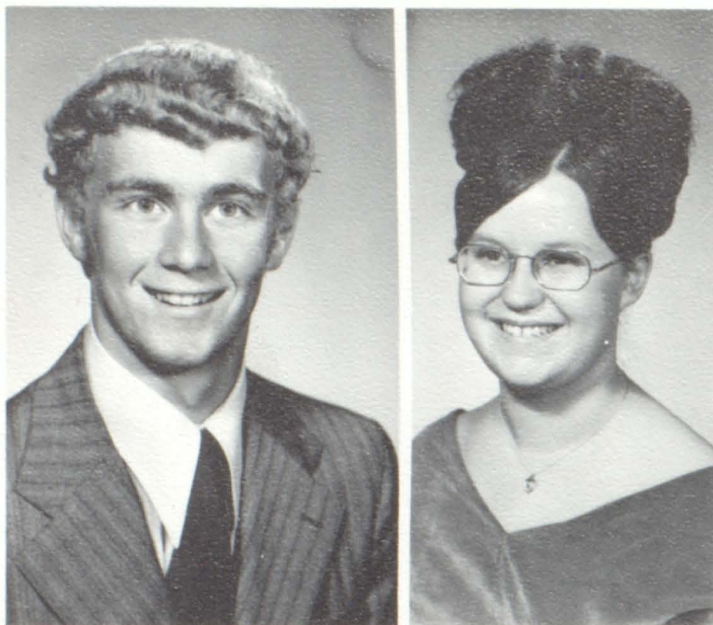

Anticipation is high as students await their awards which are announced at the event.

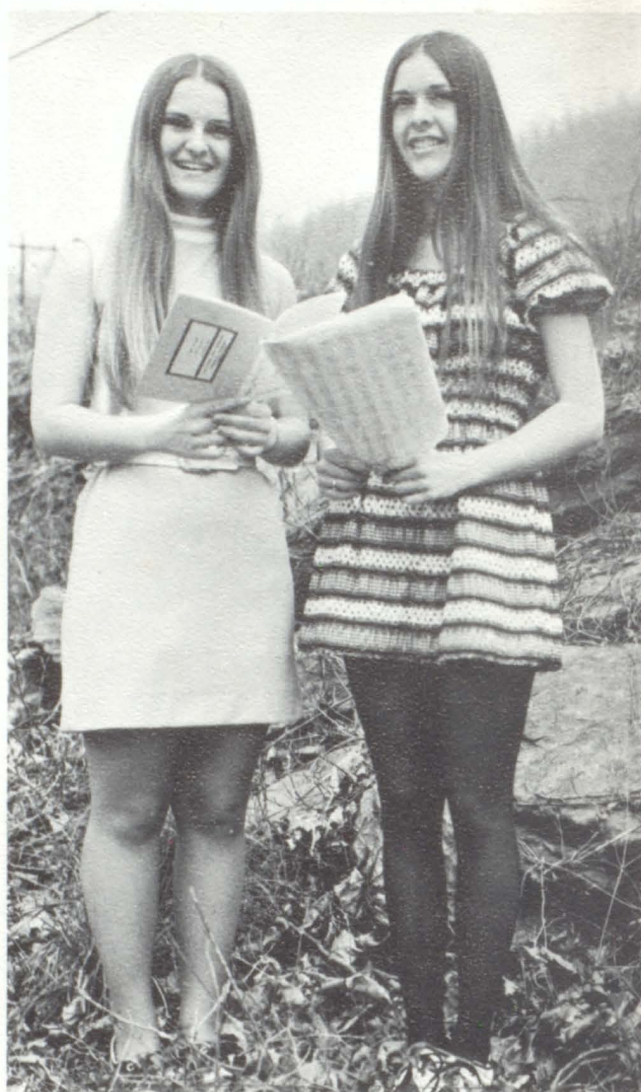

Parents and friends of the honorees were on hand for the assembly and the social hour which followed the presentation.

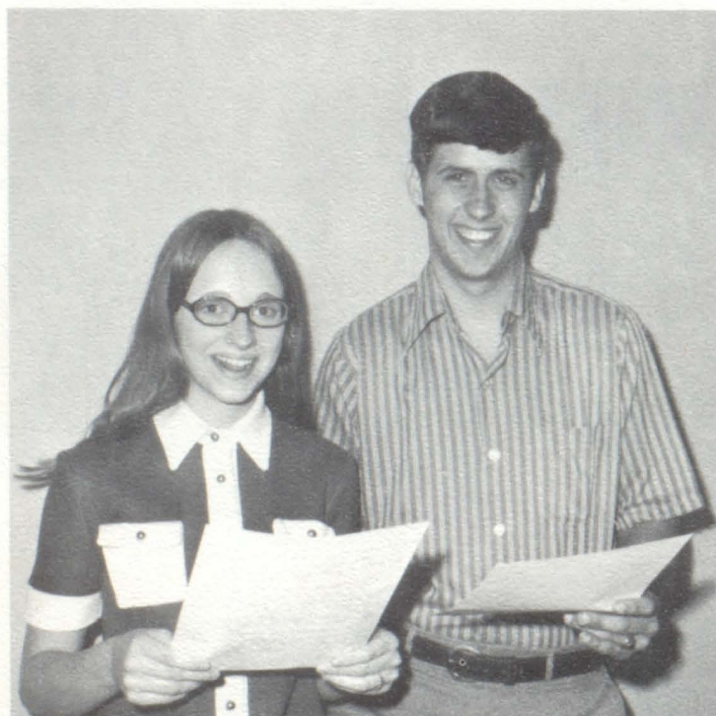

Tom Tyree and Norene Testerman represented Oceana High at the Elks' Youth Activities Banquet. The two also received the senior "I Dare You" Danforth awards.

Nancy Toler was named delegate to American Heritage Camp. Melinda Cook was chosen alternate.

Estelene Williamson and Bruce Sparks were chosen Oceana High delegates to the United Nations Youth Pilgrimage. They were sponsored by the Oceana Odd Fellows.

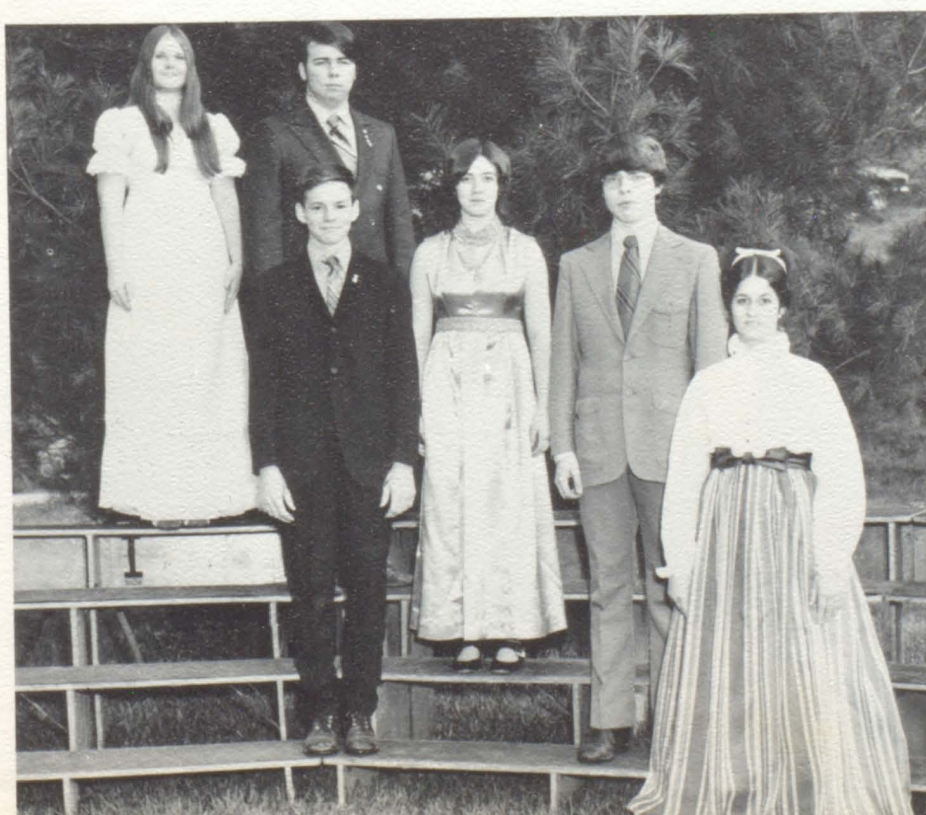

Honors

Harlen Tiller received the National Observer award for his interest in current events and knowledge of world affairs.

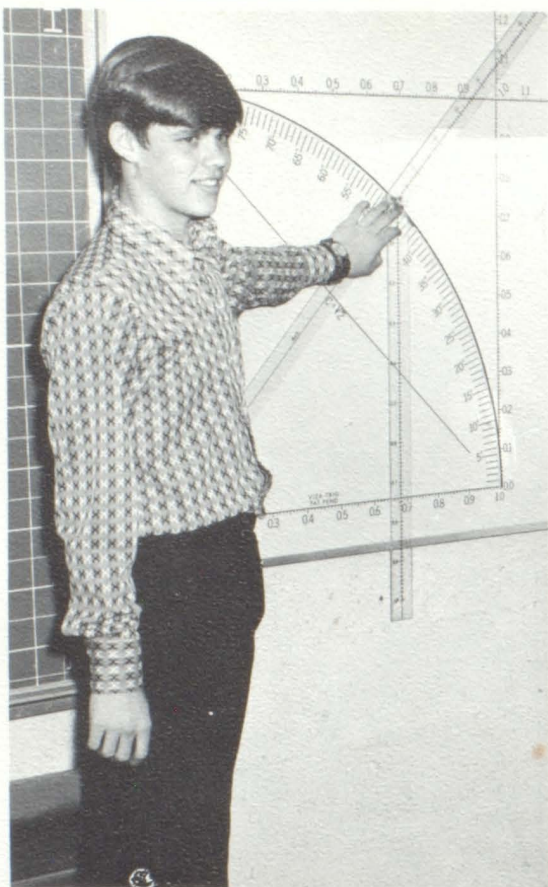

All-Area Band members who performed in the area festival concert which was held in Bluefield May 5 were Steve Brown, Rose Summers, Mae Laxton, Ralph Worley, Billy Robertson, Karen Aliff, Anita Varney, Jackie McGinnis, Johnny Basconi, Cheryl Walker, Randy Walker, Doug Vanover, and Teresa Cook.

All-State Chorus members were Patty Harris, Bobby Cook, Steve Griffith, Cada Cook, Garry Toler, and Debbie Trent. They sang in the concert at Parkersburg.

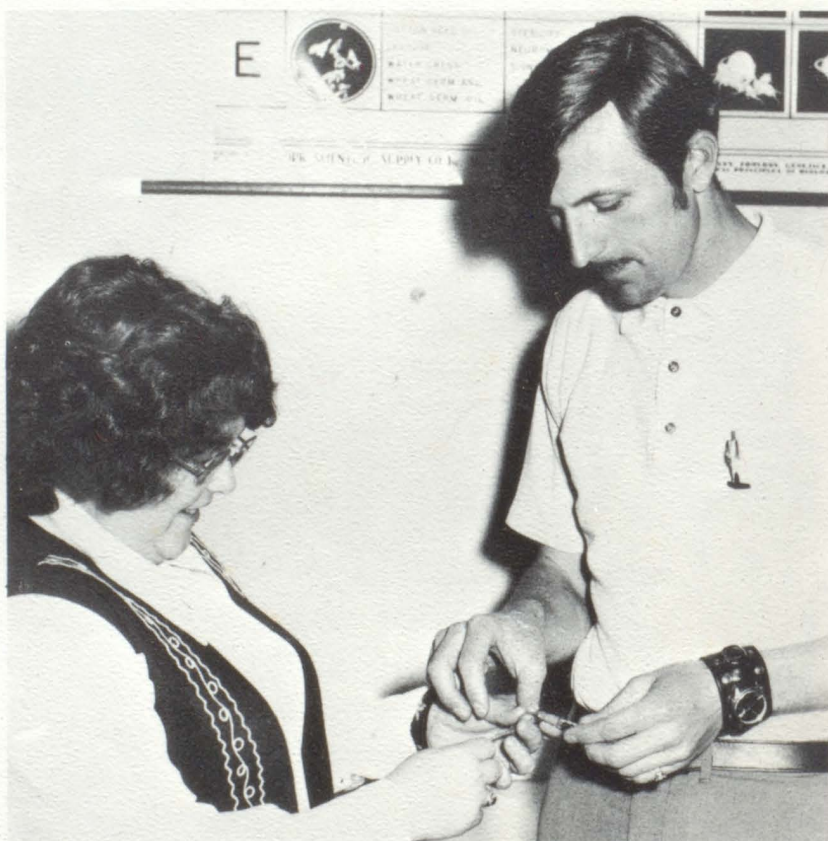

Math and science honors went to Ralph Hall, delegate to the Engineering Banquet.

Mickey Sizemore and Cheri Knea represented the juniors at State Government Day.

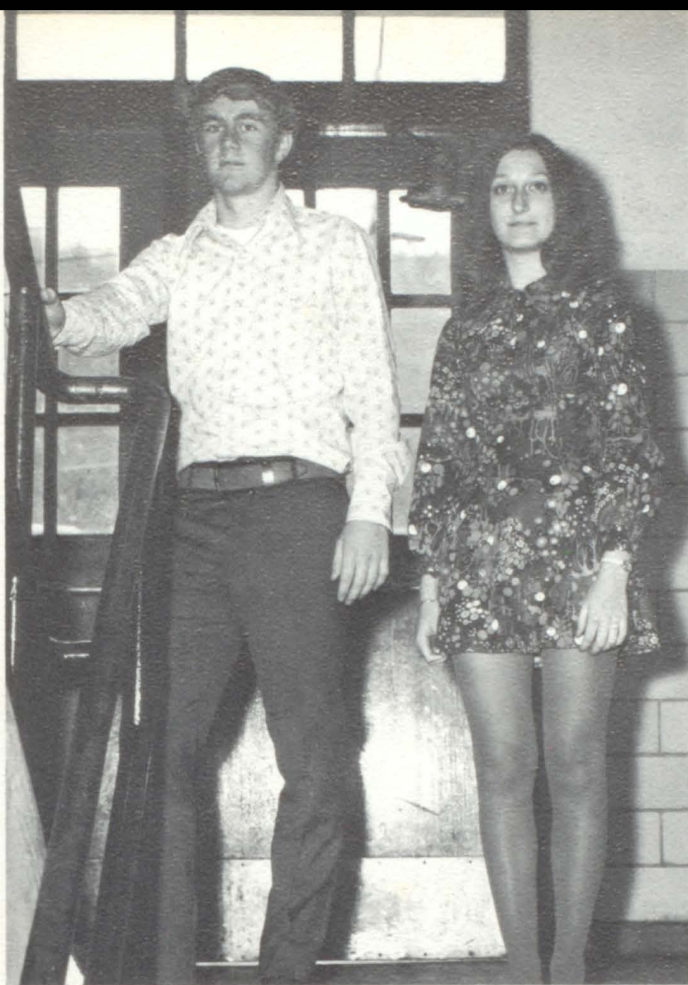

Paula Greer and Martha Hatfield were delegates to Girls' State.

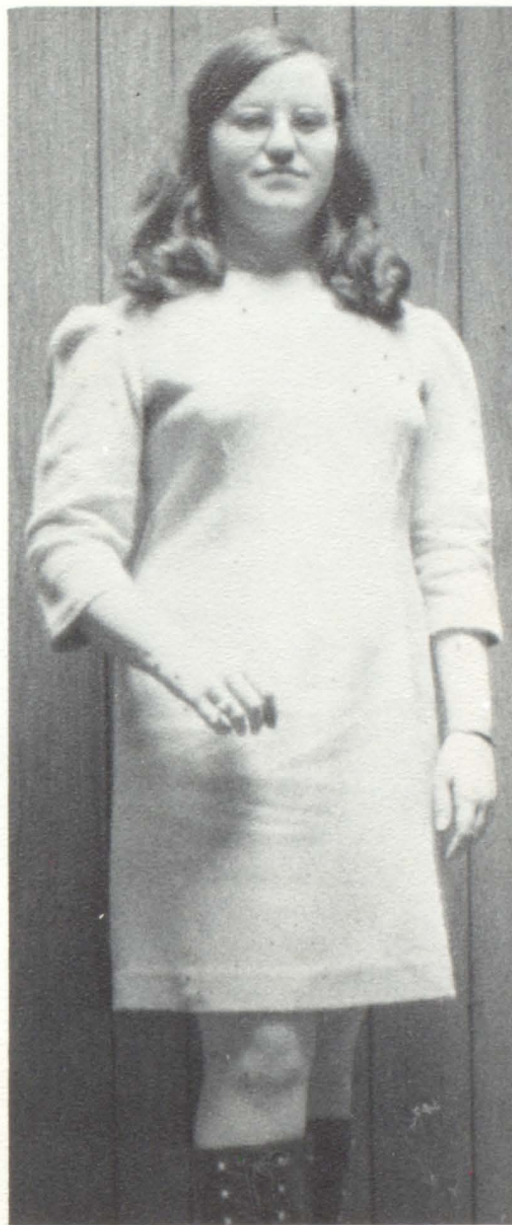

Kathy Daniels was one of six state high school students chosen to attend the the National Junior Science and Humanities Symposium held at Duke University. She won state honors in the Medicine and Health Division in the West Virginia Junior Academy of Science and Engineering Fair. On the basis of her project, she was awarded a four-year scholarship to West Virginia University. Mr. Ash P. Stewart, biology teacher, was Kathy's exhibition adviser.

Tom Tyree and Lynn Doak represented Oceana High in the Elks' Leadership Contest for seniors of the area.

"DAR Good Citizen" honors went to Mary Brown Belcher of the senior class.

Honors

Homemaker of Tomorrow honors went to Norene Testerman who scored highest of all seniors.

Norman Daniels was named top trade school student.

"Romance in Venice" comes closer as Brenda Milam and Connie Rollins carefully hang a mural.

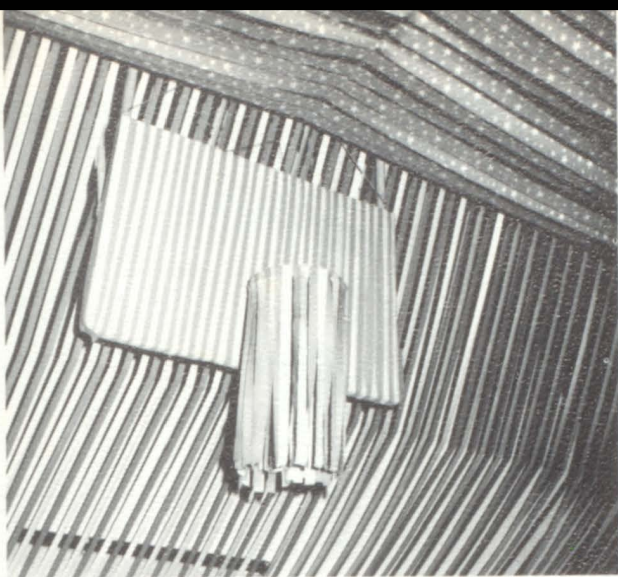

Prom magic takes over

Part of the fun of the annual prom is getting ready. The juniors began working a week before the prom, and although some said it couldn't be done, by the end of the week the gym was transformed into a romantic Italian setting. The work was hard but the class enjoyed it.

On prom night everyone agreed that all of the fund raising, planning, and hard work had been worth the effort.

Lois Singleton, Peggy Williams, and Carol Griffith peer over the wrought iron fence which they have assembled to accent the prom theme.

If it was there, the juniors decorated it.

"I never believed it would be this hard, or this much fun," says Kathy Toney to Sue Terry and Debbie Trent.

Landlubbers Randy Powell, Billy Robertson, and Jerry Lusk finish up the red and gold gondola.

"A little rain never hurt anyone," says smiling Carolyn Haynes as she arrives with her date John Wooten.

Mike Hughes and Jeanie Meade agreed that "Romance in Venice" was a very beautiful and appropriate theme.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hatcher seemed to enjoy the music and atmosphere as much as the juniors and seniors.

One of the favorite spots at the prom was the refreshment table. Was it because of the food and drink or the ten sophomore girls dressed in peasant costumes and acting as serving girls for the night's merriment?

Everyone enjoyed listening and dancing to the music of the rock group from Mullens called "Stone Castle."

At the corner of Piazza San Marco and Dardanelli everyone wanted his picture taken by the photographer.

Queen Jennifer and her court were honored with a dance after the prom ceremonies.

Everyone really enjoyed dancing to "Foot Stompin' Music."

Mr. and Mrs. Rufford Blankenship watch the coronation of their lovely daughter, Jennifer, as prom queen of 1972.

Jennifer Blankenship reigns at annual prom

Highlighting the 1972 Junior-Senior Prom was the coronation of lovely Queen Jennifer Blankenship. The romantic evening centered around the ceremonies in which the queen was announced and crowned.

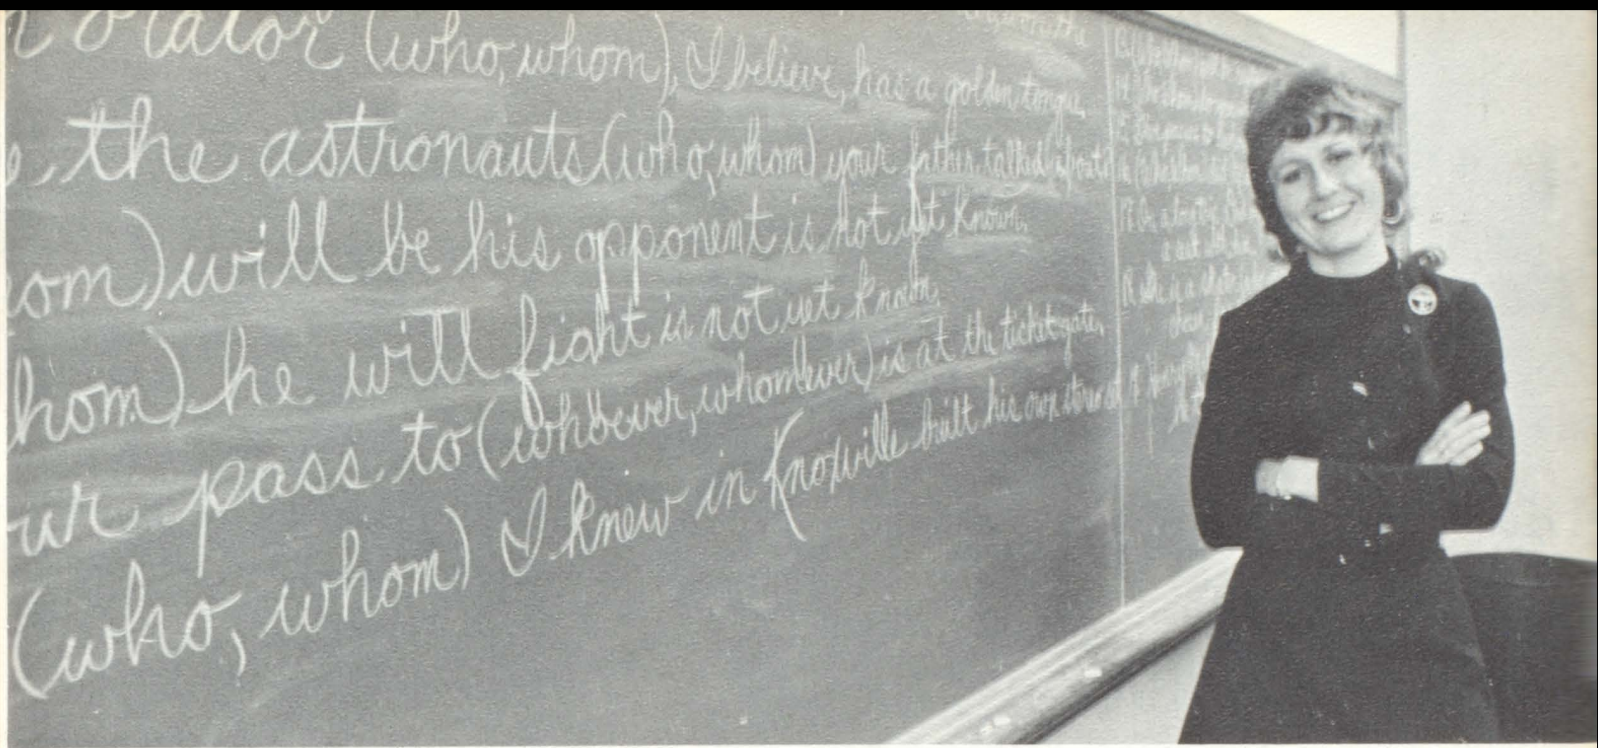

Queen Jennifer and her court were selected by a vote of the junior and senior classes, and the identity of the queen was kept secret until the coronation.

Prom Queen Jennifer Blankenship is crowned and presented with a locket by Mark Boshell, junior class president. She was escorted by Ralph Hall.

After the coronation Queen Jennifer and her court were presented flowers. Attendants and escorts were Doug Lambert and Marilyn Toler; Will Stewart and Vicki Law; Ralph Hall and Queen Jennifer Blankenship; Steve Brown and Linda Cook; and Jerome Blankenship and Mary Belcher. The queen and attendants were chosen by juniors and seniors.

ACADEMICS

Members of the Board of Education worked diligently to improve Wyoming County educational facilities with emphasis upon providing job training. Science departments were also upgraded. Seated are Mr. Charles W. "Buddy" Cook, Mr. Arnold Rose, and Mr. Fred Lokant. Standing are Mr. Sam Foglesong and Mr. Leon Childress, president.

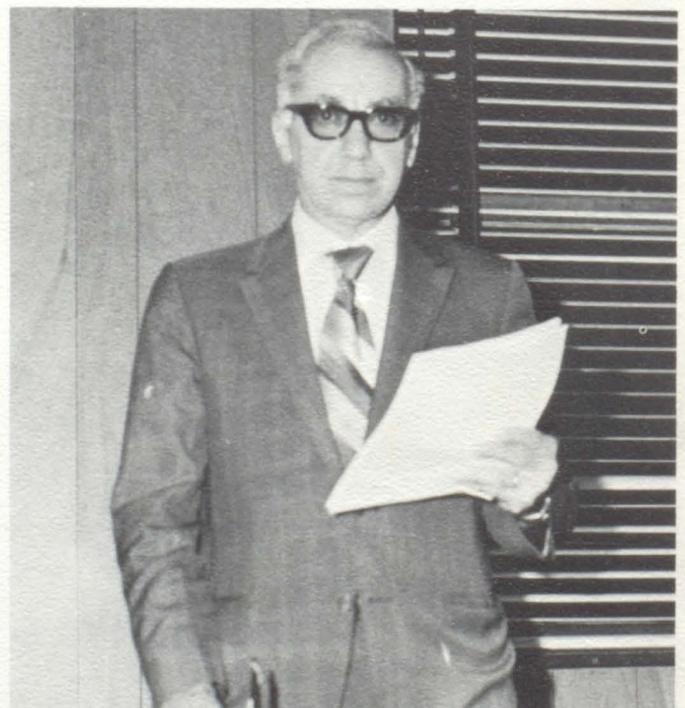

Board works to provide new vocational school

Two years of hard work by members of the Board of Education have resulted in a major achievement for county education. This is acquisition of funds for the first phase of construction and a site for the new vocational-technical school to be completed over a three-year period.

Two of the six buildings planned are scheduled for completion by September, 1973, with a six-building complex to be completed by the end of the third year.

The buildings will be arranged in campus style and are designed to accommodate as many as one thousand students.

The new facility will meet the need for expanded vocational education and a wide variety of courses will be available, enabling students to graduate with skills to offer in the labor market.

Mr. James Pizzino, superintendent of county schools, checks over the agenda for a meeting of the Board.

New principal has busy year

Mr. Ira Cook, in his first year as principal of Oceana High, has been instrumental in upgrading the curriculum and adding new equipment to meet the diverse educational needs of today's students.

Mrs. Cook supervised preparation for the third re-evaluation of the school by the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges in April. Oceana was admitted into the association in 1954.

The re-evaluation included a study of the total school program and its goals, inspection of facilities and equipment, and studies of the curriculum, guidance services, classroom instruction, the activity program, and school administration. The check was made by a nineteen-member North Central team which found the school to be maintaining satisfactory standards.

Mr. Cook joined the faculty in 1962 and was appointed vice principal in 1966. He served in this capacity until he assumed duties as principal this year.

Mr. Ira Cook places bulletin in teachers' mail box.

Counseling is part of each busy day's work. Here Mr. Cook discusses a schedule problem with two students.

Vice principal achieves 'first'

The distinction of being first woman vice principal of a county high school came to Mrs. Ruby Ford this year.

Mrs. Ford assumed administrative duties after teaching math and science at Oceana High for four years.

She completed high school in Belfrey, Kentucky, in 1943. She studied at Concord College and did graduate work at Marshall and West Virginia Universities. She holds the master's degree in education.

Girls feel that Mrs. Ford represents them in administration. They find she is ready to help with problems.

Mrs. Ford is the county's first woman high school vice principal.

Mrs. Maxine Barrett, librarian, prepares a bulletin board display to call attention to new biographies.

Mrs. Sherry Brown, secretary, adds sparkle to the school office by putting up Christmas decorations.

Counselor Bill Harless gets an early start by preparing an exhibit of catalogs and brochures for college-bound seniors.

Mr. Tom Goheen, band director, presents service awards to outstanding band and chorus members at the annual honors assembly.

Students get view of many vocations

Emphasis on vocational guidance this year provided opportunity for students to hear representatives from many fields and obtain a broad view of career and job possibilities for youth in the future.

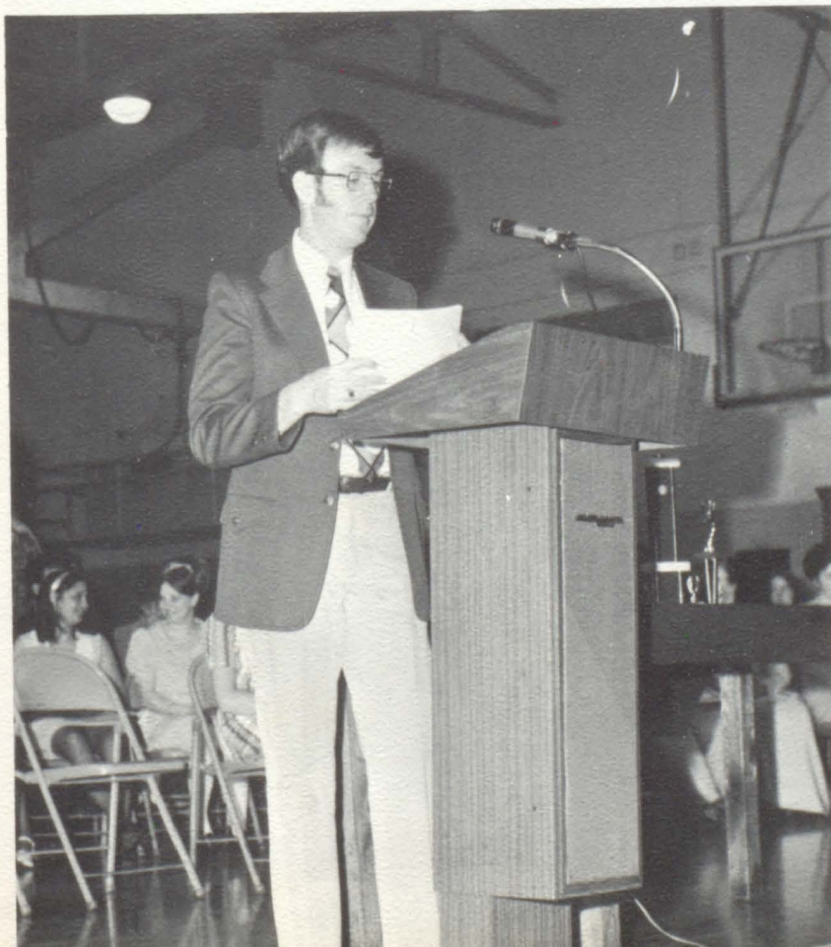

"Turn On . . . Tune In . . . Your Future" was the theme for Vocational Guidance Week when a career assembly was held for sophomores. Upperclassmen heard thirty specialists describe their work on Career Day and aptitude tests were also available.

Music department serves community

The music department is an important phase of school life. The band represents Oceana High in numerous activities and the marching band is always on hand for football games and other special events.

The chorus presents concerts and performs at various community programs and gatherings.

The music program is open to all students and provides an opportunity for developing talent in worthwhile activities.

Emphasis on research, independent study

Game of jeopardy creates lots of interest in Mrs. Gerry Davis's American Studies class. Panelists are Steve Gibson, Doug Perkins, and Doris Acord. Gary Toler is scorekeeper.

Contemporary Problems group prepares a study on drugs to present to the class. At work on discussion material are Cheryl Estepp, Alvin Burke, Shirley Rose, and Mike Rotenbury.

reflects changes in educational program

Listening to taped instructions, Jeff Davis, Ricky Delong, and Donald Daniels begin English class.

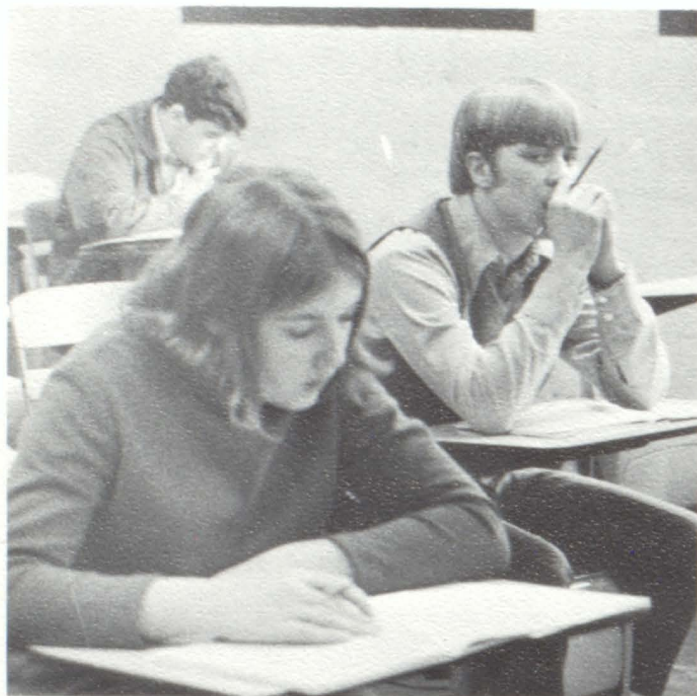

Nancy Fletcher, Estelene Williamson, and Randy Walker show Spanish I class their Spanish calendar.

Commercial students in Oceana's outstanding business department prepare for the business world.

Learning center provides for reading improvement

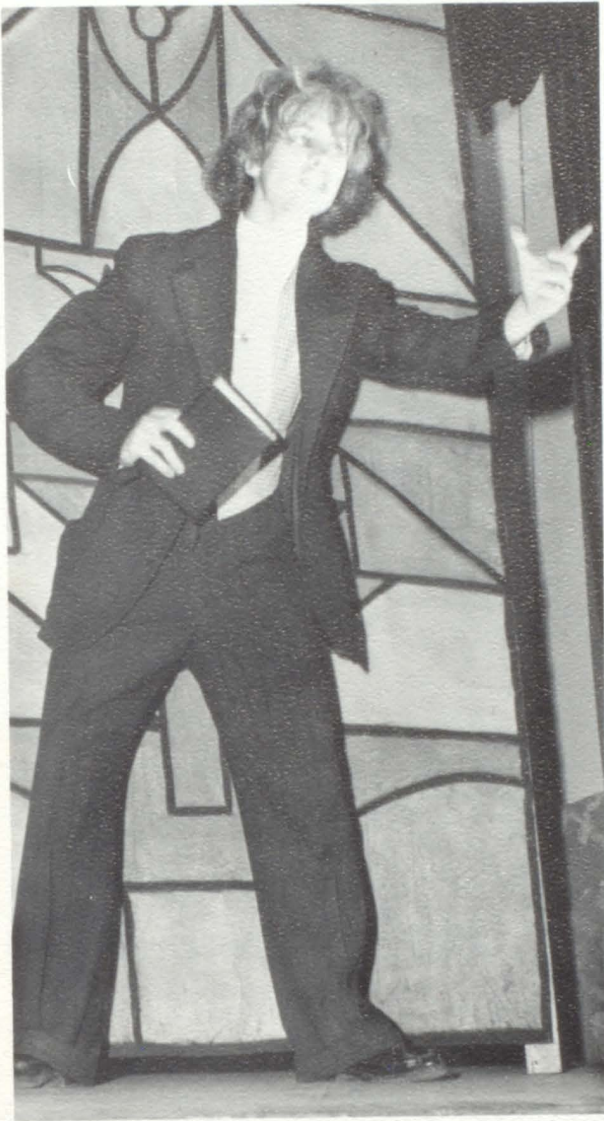

Listening to taped instructions, students improve their ability to concentrate as they prepare for test.

Great variety of material is available in the center. Every student can find something of interest to him.

Reading laboratories, a listening lab, films, and other teaching aids are found in the Science Research Associates Learning Center installed this year. Checking material to be used in the center are Mrs. Carol Morgan, reading specialist; Mr. George Ballard, SRA; Mr. Paul Blankenship, center director; and Miss Sandra Buckley, special education co-ordinator.

As village minister, Mark Boshell deplores the depravity of youth while delivering his morning sermon to an approving audience.

Theatre arts class gives 'Cry of Crows'

Theatre Arts is a learn-by-doing class which is part of the Modified Apex English Program adopted this year for seniors and juniors.

Analysis of dramatic literature along with practical aspects of doing plays kept the class busy.

The group painted the stage, built permanent flats, and installed an adequate lighting system from odds and ends of material before giving "Cry of Crows" as their first production

Debbie Meredith and Danny Harless portray two teenage victims of gossip who suddenly realize the whole town is talking.

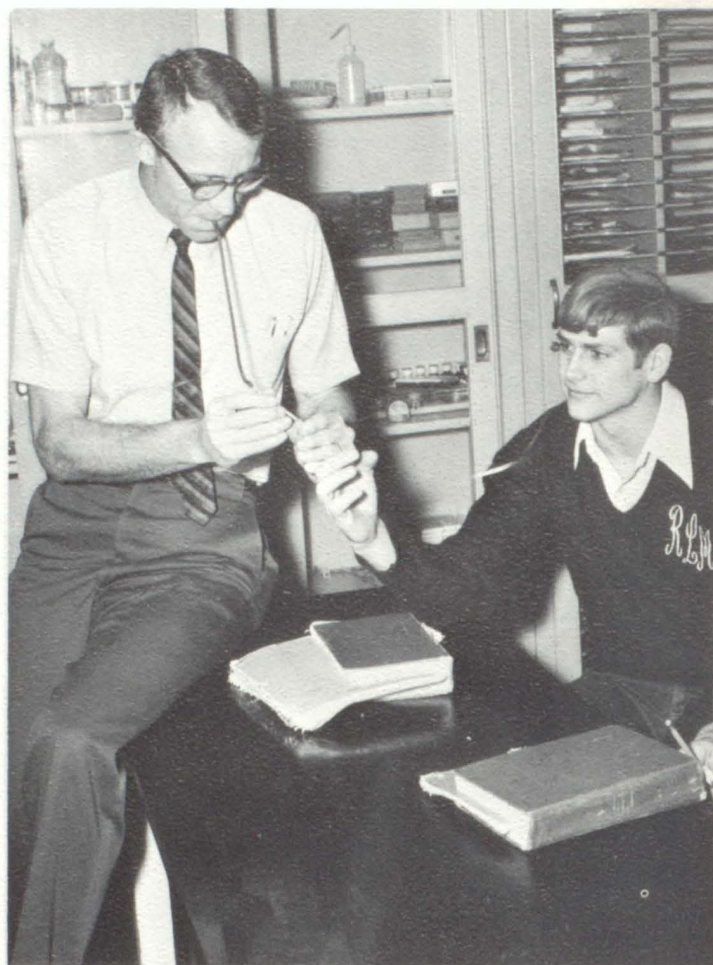

Martha O'Neal and Sue Terry, as village gossips, spread the story about the young couple in a hurry and add many details.

Science students dig for answers

Biology students Tommy Gunter and Millie Lambert take advantage of new equipment in the department.

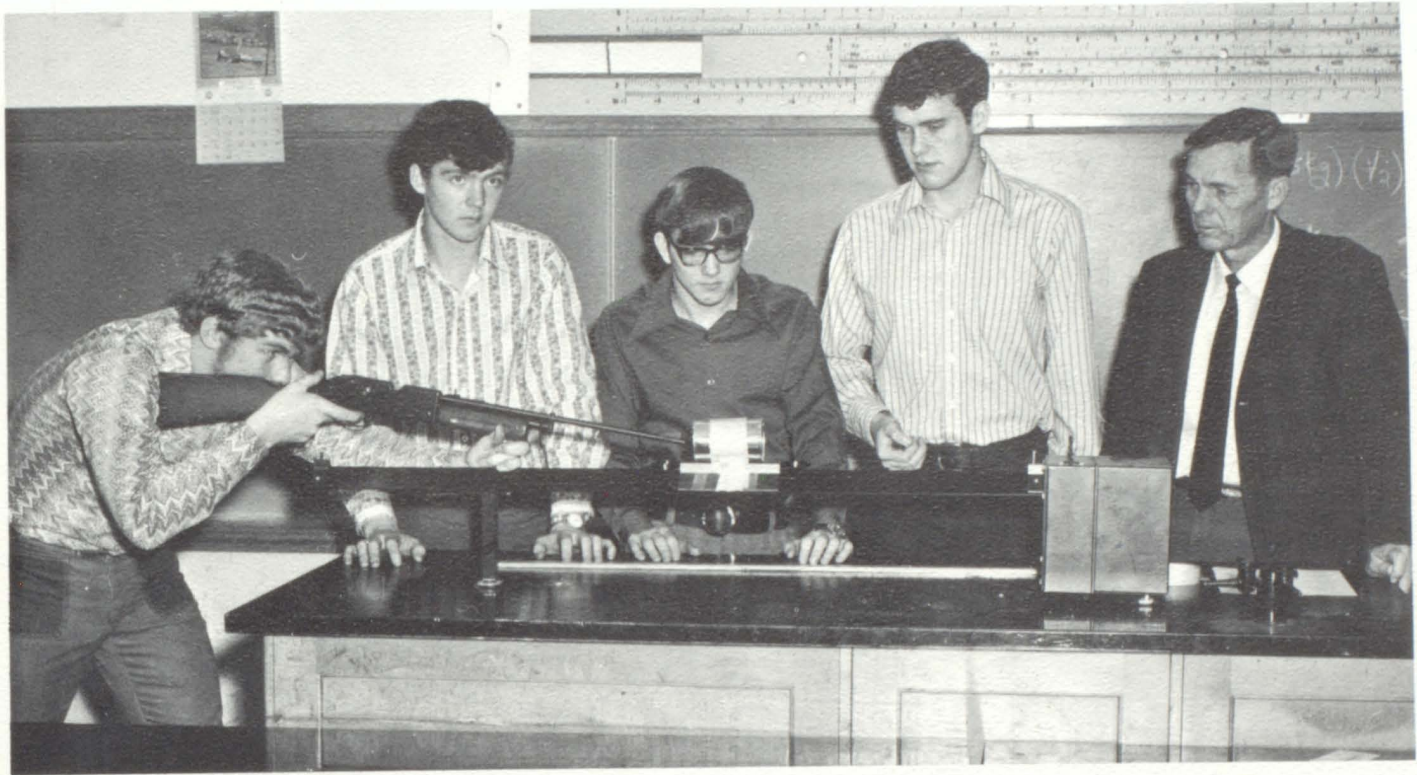

Ronnie Miller keeps his cool while Coach Paul Greer takes a blood sample for analysis in the anatomy class.

Experimentation is the key in biology class taught by Mr. Ash P. Stewart. Sophs Reggie Philyaw, Richard Walker, Craig Blankenship, and Terry Tyree enjoy learning by doing.

Harvard physics program added this year

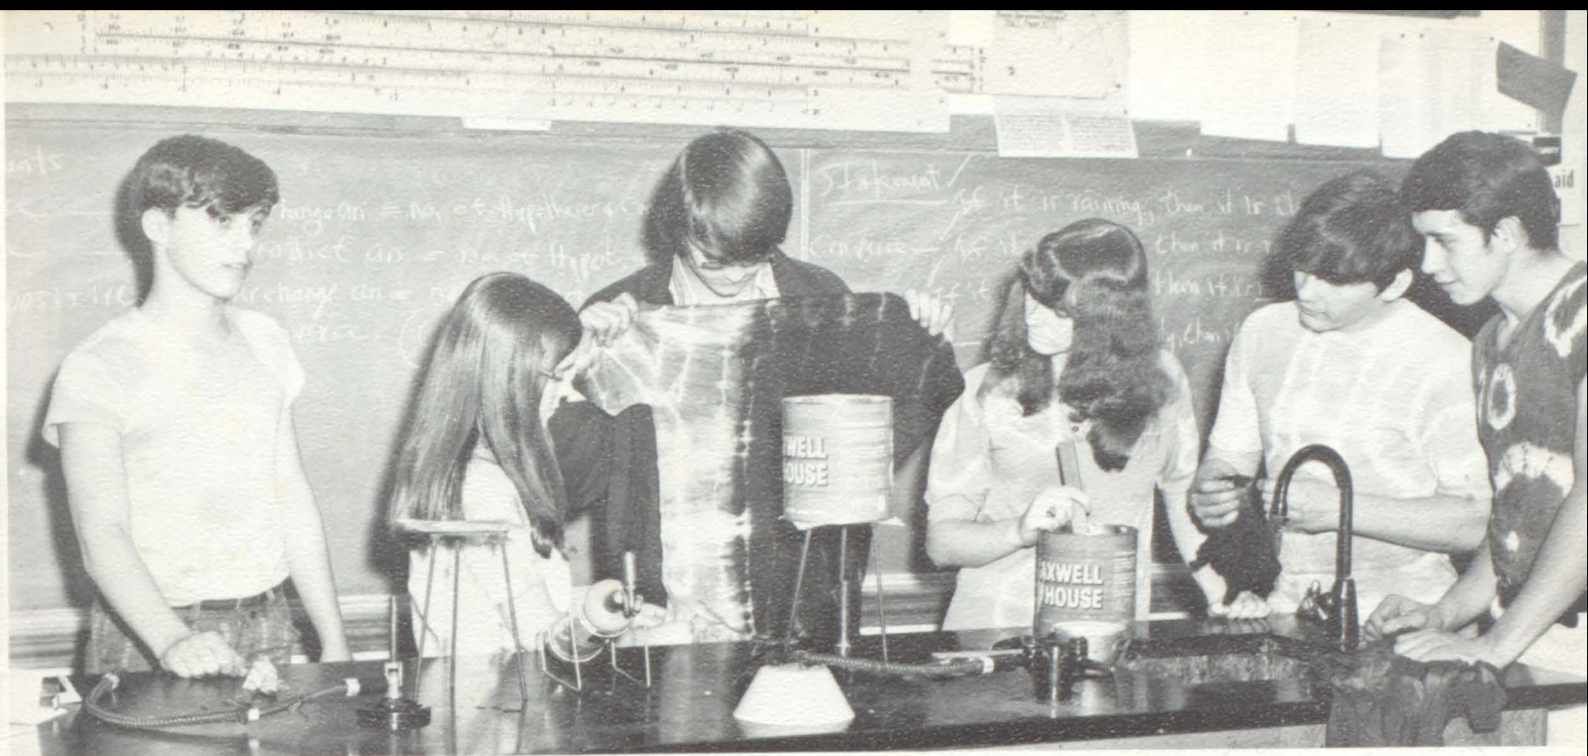

Physics students determine the speed of a bullet with the use of an air track. They are Tom Tyree, Ricky Anderson, Ricky Hicks, Henry Cook and Mr. Gene Gilliland, instructor. The Harvard Project Physics Program is used in this class. New equipment, new textbooks, and other new material provide opportunity for much experimentation.

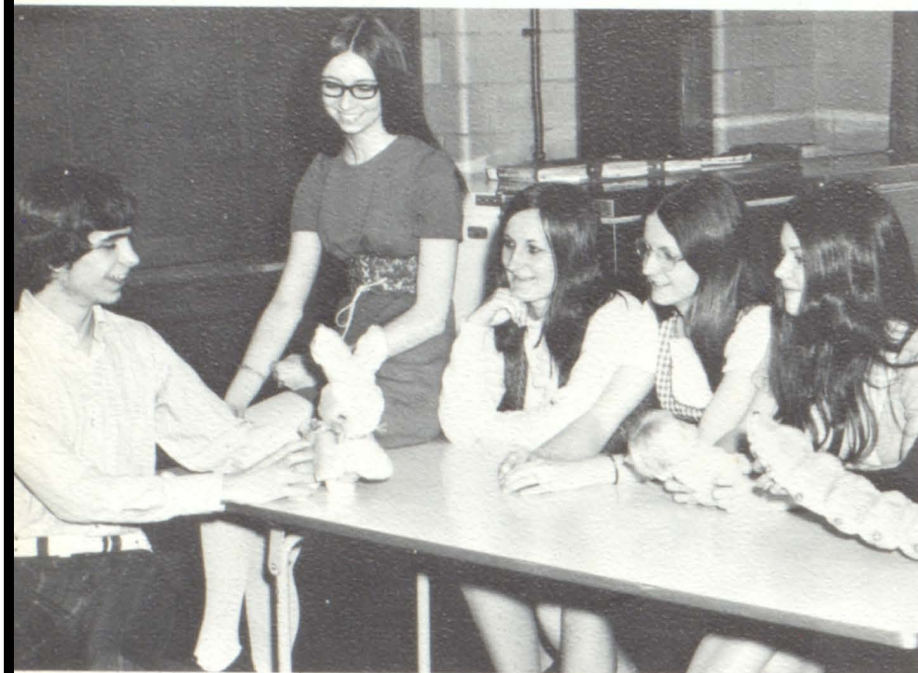

Experimenting in rocketry was one of the projects of the physical science class. Danny Thacker, David Snyder, Gary Spence, and Roger Arrington fire from the football field.

ORGANIZATIONS

Collecting and purchasing Christmas toys to help Santa brought smiles to everyone's face. Santa's helpers are Mark Boshell, vice president; Beth Pendry, historian; Rhonda Daniels, treasurer; Martha Hatfield, parliamentarian, and Teresa Maxey. They also provided a family with a Christmas dinner.

Mary Brown Belcher, council president and Mr. Paul Blankenship, sponsor, look over the schedule for the 1972 homecoming activities which was the council's first main project.

Council provides training for tomorrow's leaders

Mixing fun with business, the council has an informal meeting along with refreshments after school. Members are Mark Boshell, Rhonda Daniels, Martha Hatfield, Mary Brown Belcher, Sharon Spears, and Cathy Justice. Standing: Linda Cook, Pete Short, Linda Cook, Randy Short, Beth Pendry, Guy Brunty, Nancy Toler, and Butch Browning.

National Honor Society officers led a busy year. They were Glenda Pendry, historian; Darlene Hurley, treasurer; Richard Cook, president; Rhonda Daniels, vice-president; Lynn Doak, secretary; and Mrs. Maxine Barrett, sponsor. The society's candle sale enabled the group to continue its scholarship donations to three state colleges.

Honor Society leads busy year

Other members of the society are Norene Testerman, Cheri Knea, Mark Boshell, Cathy Justice, Jimmy Goble, Jennifer Blankenship, Debbie Terry, Chuck Morgan, Wayne Basconi, Randy Short, Ralph Hall, Henry Cook, Cheryl Aliff, Mickey Sizemore, Tom Tyree, Bruce Sparks, and Harlen Tiller. Scholarship, leadership, and service are requirements.

National Beta Club stresses leadership

Twenty students are members of the newly chartered National Beta Club. Members are chosen on the basis of leadership qualities and examples of leadership, service to school and community, honesty and integrity, attitude and scholarship.

The OHS Chapter received its charter December 17. Jim May, state adviser, presented the charter.

Its purpose is to stimulate effort, reward achievement, and encourage and assist its members to continue their education after graduating from high school.

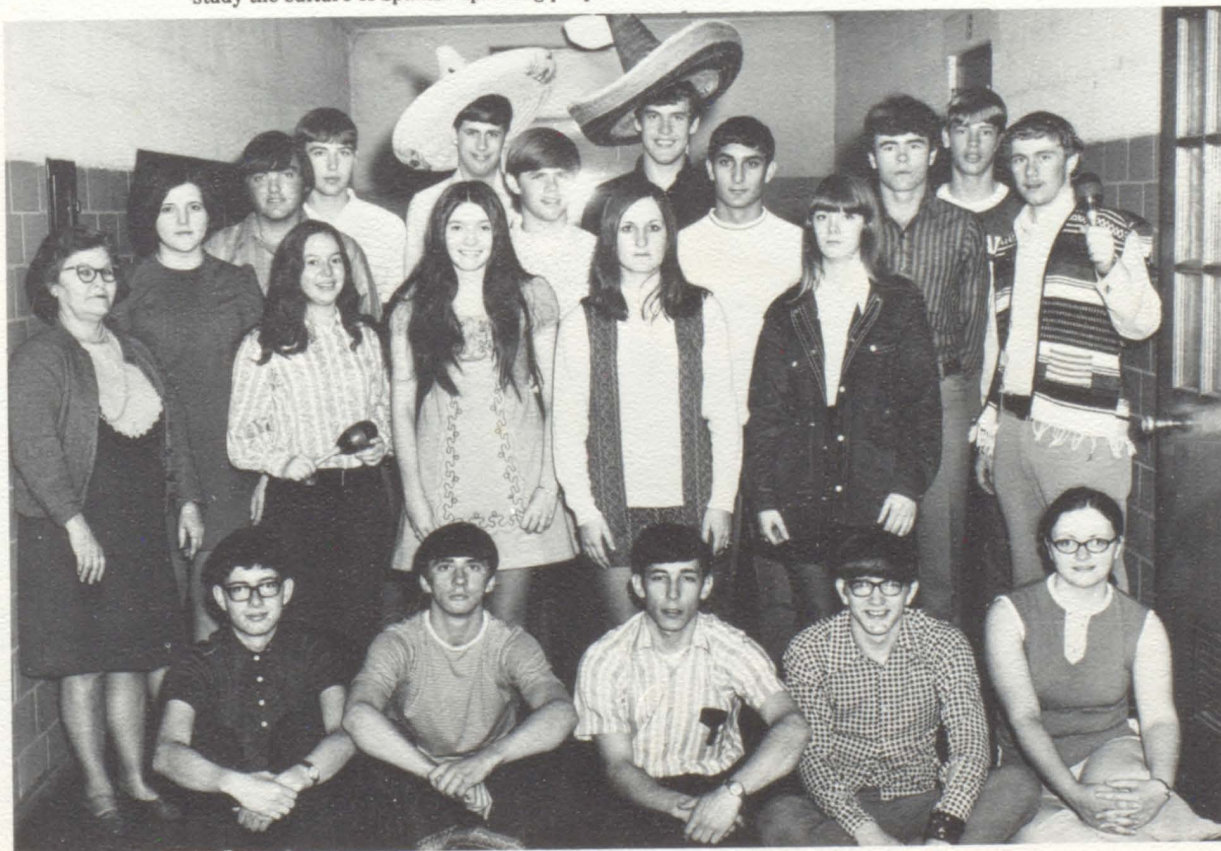

New members of the Beta Club are Carol Justice, Martha Hatfield, Cathy Justice, Ralph Hall, Beth Pendry, and Terry Tyree. Mr. Paul Blankenship organized the Oceana Chapter and is sponsor of the group.

Honor language groups have varied interests

SPORTS

It was a great year

This year's football team kept up the Indian winning tradition by compiling a 9-2 record. This was the third Indian team to go to the state playoff. First Row: Mark Kanott, Terry Tyree, Tim Gibson, Jeff Davis, Corky Lugar, Kenny Wooten, Richard Cobb, Jerry Lusk. Second Row: Mike Rotenbury, Eric Bryant, Phillip Shrewsbury, Robert Stafford, Steve Gregory, Steve Stanley, Denver Goodman, Paul Cook, Tom Goodman. Third Row: Jeff Ryan, Wess Fraley, Cecil Queen, Mike Toler, Reggie Philyaw, Doug Perkins, Craig St. Clair, Richard Walker, Roger Arrington, Clacy Lambert. Fourth Row: Ricky Walker, Jerry Bailey, Doug Lambert, Gary Philpot, Henry Cook, Ronnie Miller, Will Stewart, Keith Snyder, Tom Tyree, and Robert Tilley. Seven players will be graduating from OHS this year.

Indians maintain winning tradition

It was another great year for the Indian football team which wound up the season with a record of 9-1 and a slot in the State AA championship football playoff. This was the third Indian team to have a chance for state honors.

The Indians went against Ceredo-Kenova at Van Meter Stadium in Beckley and lost 14-8 after a hard-fought contest which could have gone either way.

Several members of the state runner-up team were named to the honor squads. Henry Cook, Doug Lambert, Tom Tyree, Westley Fraley, Gary Philpot, Ron Miller, and Cecil Queen were chosen for All-County honors.

Fraley, Tyree, Philpot, and Miller made the All-Coalfield Conference and All-Area teams. OHS members of the All-Southern team were Philpot, Fraley, and Tyree.

Tyree, fullback and team captain, was named to the AA All-State team. He was chosen on the basis of his all-around ability and aggressiveness. Tyree scored a total of 130 points in his high school football career.

Miller, Philpot, and Fraley received special All-State honorable mention.

8	State AA Championship Playoff
	Ceredo-Kenova	14

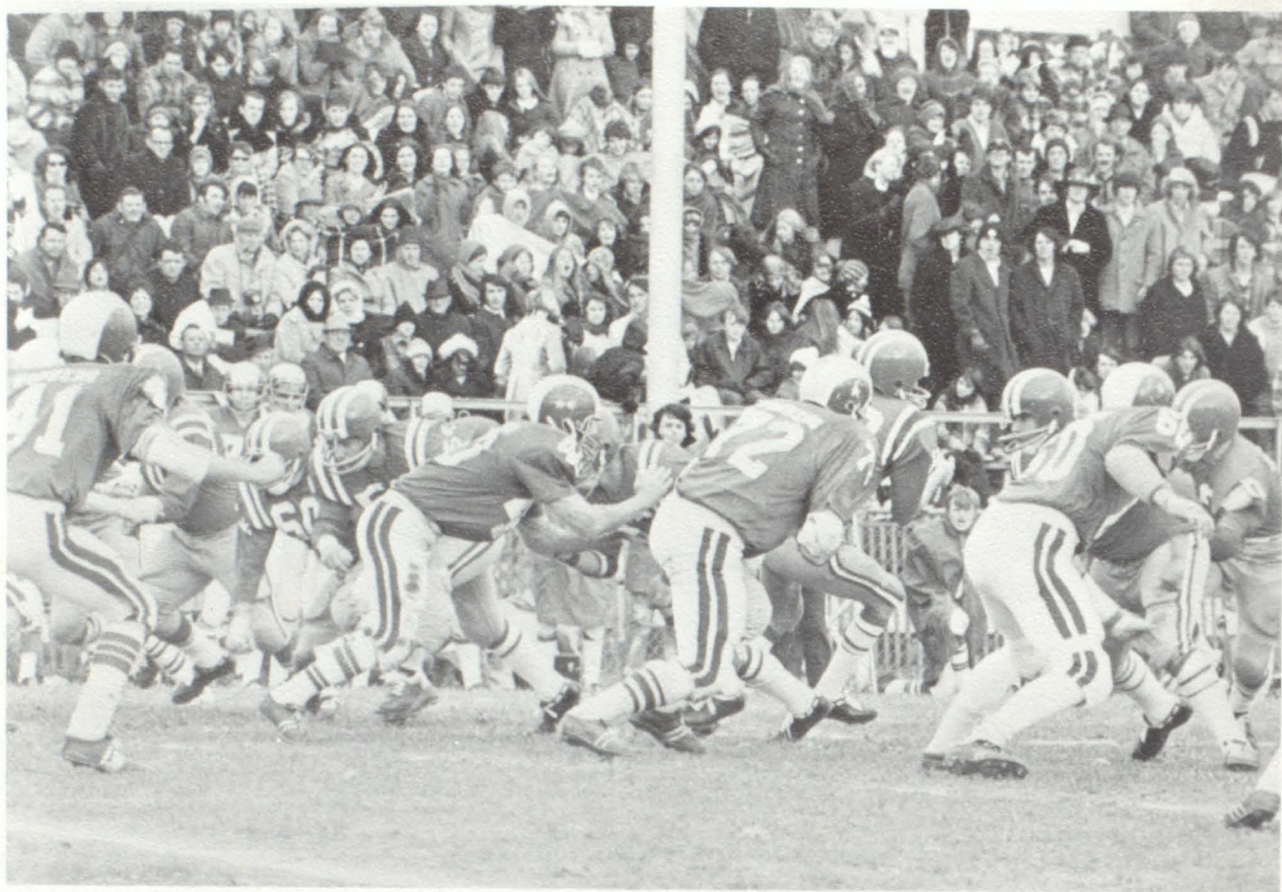

Off and running into the new football season, the backfield shows strength and speed. Mike Toler, Ron Miller, Will Stewart, Gary Philpot, and Tom Tyree turn it on as they anticipate a successful year for the football team.

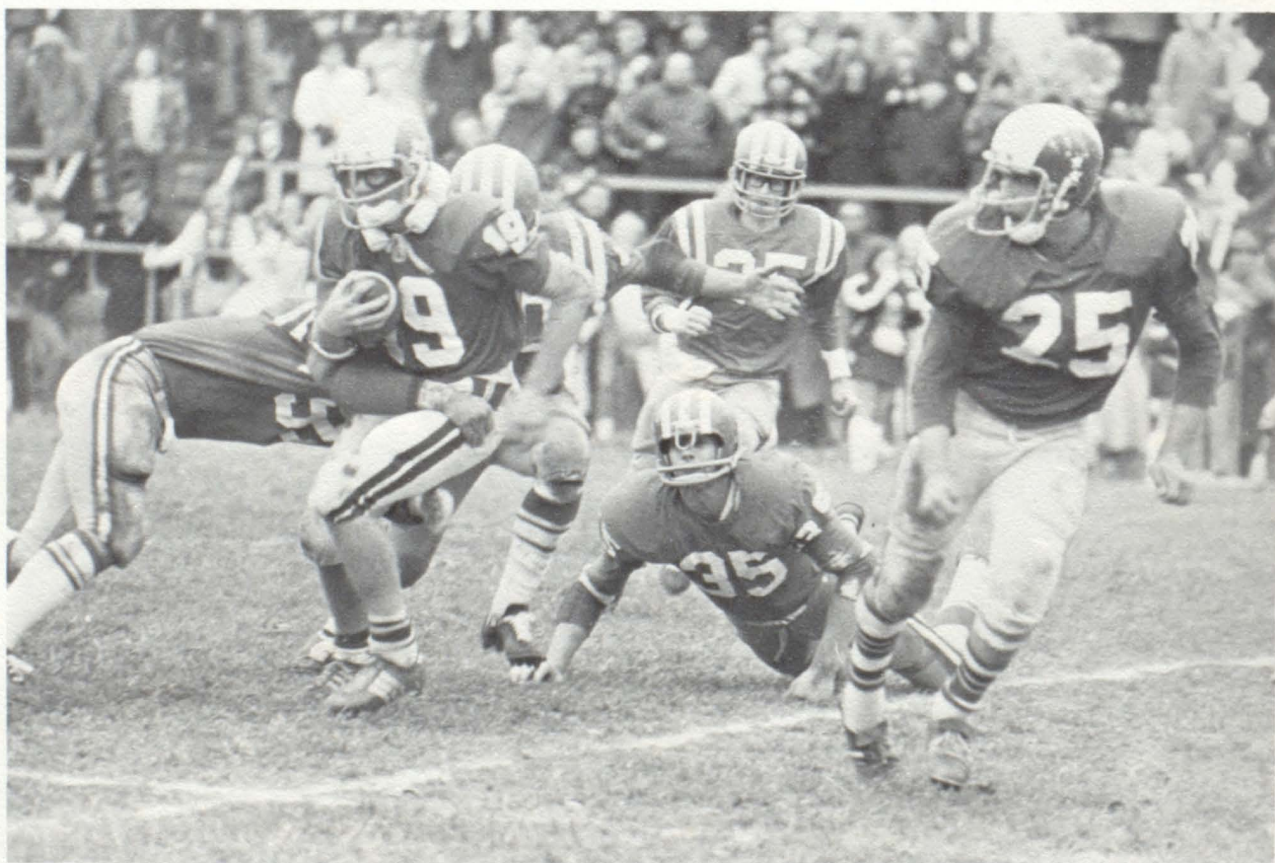

A successful football season is put together by determined players and coaches in hours of long hard practice.

The Indians launch the season with a home victory over Stoco 16-8. Players get ready for the second half action.

The Indian defense and Ceredo-Kenova meet head on in the State AA championship battle at Beckley.
 Defensive end Doug Lambert tackles a Ceredo-Kenova player. Moving up are Terry Tyree and Ron Miller.

Indians battle Ceredo-Kenova for championship

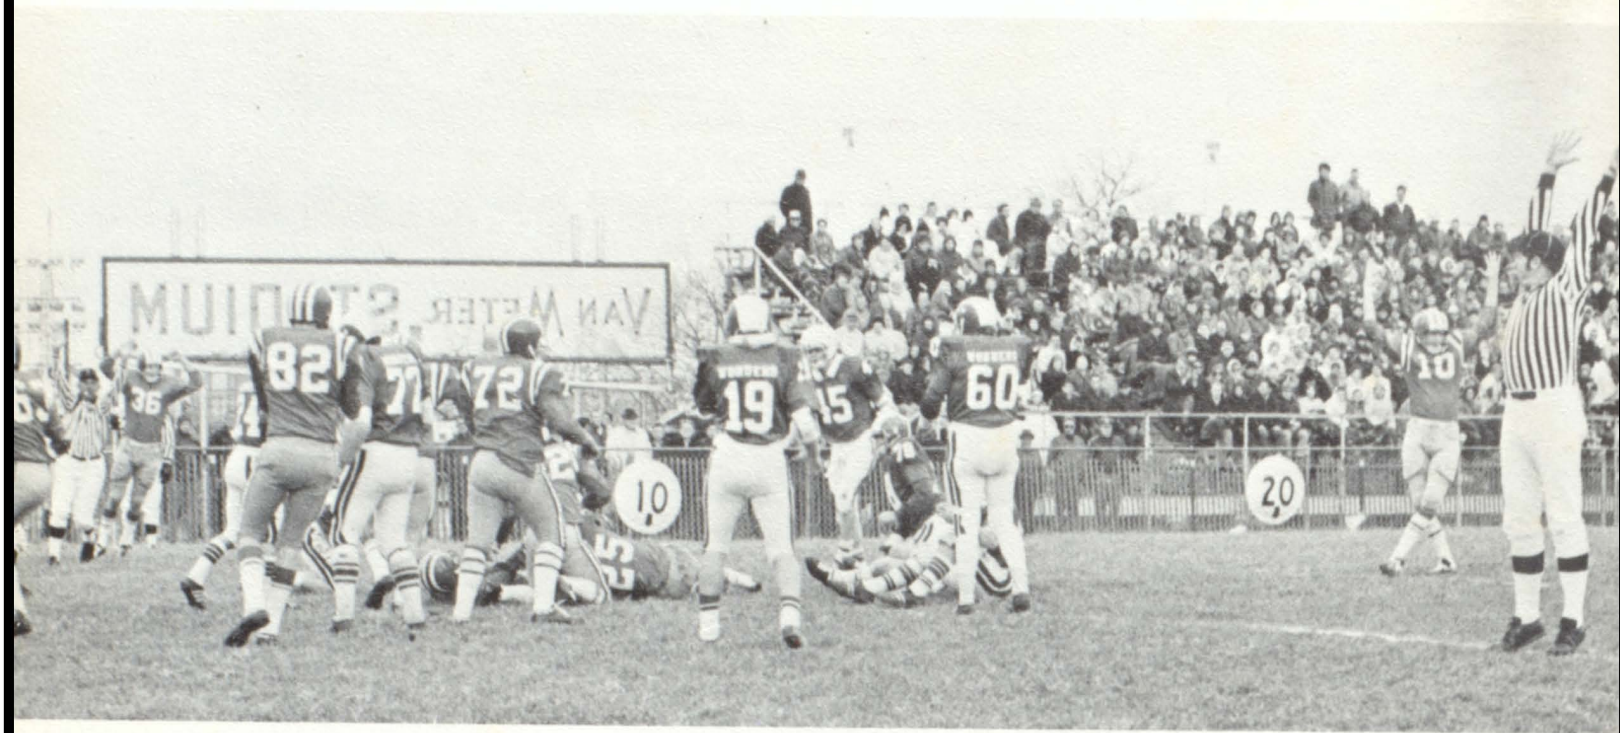

Playing in the State AA championship football game for the third time in four years, the Indians dropped a hard-fought battle to Ceredo-Kenova, 14-8. The game was played at Van Meter Stadium in Beckley.

Oceana scored the first touchdown. Ronnie Miller set up the touchdown with a 35-yard run and Tom Tyree ended the 60-yard drive with a touchdown and the two extra points.

Ceredo-Kenova then drove 85 yards to score and made two extra points. The game continued in a defensive battle until Ceredo-Kenova scored a second touchdown.

Anxiously following the action, Indian reserves watch the second half.

Tom Tyree scores a touchdown in state championship game as jubilant teammates rejoice.

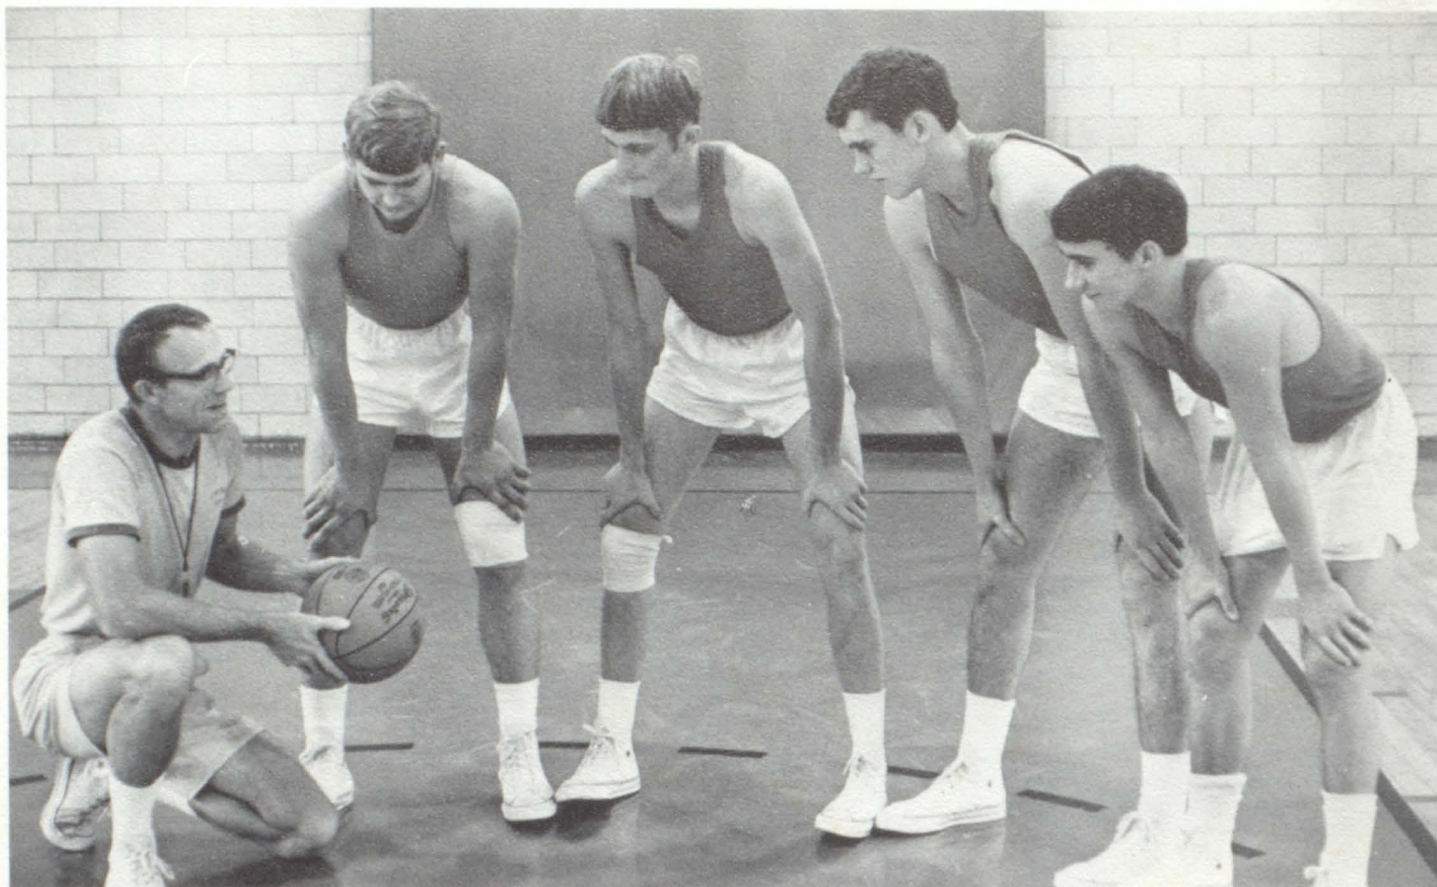

Gary Philpot tackles a C-K runner in the first quarter. The game was a grueling defensive battle.

Loss of Philpot, who was injured in the second quarter, was a big factor since he was unable to return to the action. Concerned teammates are Wayne Stafford, Kenny Wooten, and Reggie Philyaw.

State AA runner-up trophy goes to the Indians at the end of the hard-fought game. Acie Stewart, principal of Herndon High School, makes the presentation to Coach Beckelheimer and his outstanding team.

Coach Greer talks over strategy with returning lettermen Ronnie Miller, Will Stewart, Henry Cook, and Pete Short.

It was a great year for Indian hoopmen

The big, tall Indian hoopsters really rolled over area teams this year to end with a 20-2 record.

The only loss of the season was to the Gary Coaldiggers 72-75. The Indians came back later to defeat Gary by a score of 76-63.

The Indians were upset in the first county playoff game 45-56 by Pineville, a team they had twice defeated. In the consolation game Oceana downed Baileysville 88-66

Junior Ron Miller, leading scorer with a 17.2 average, was chosen to the all-tournament team.

Graduating seniors are Henry Cook, Will Stewart, and Chuck Morgan. Other juniors are Eugene Dishmon, Sam Hall, Pete Short, Randy Short, and Mickey Sizemore. Sophomores who saw a lot of action are Ray Hicks, Timmy Gibson, and Mark Kannott, who will be on hand next year.

Pete Short led the team in foul shooting with 74 percent. Will Stewart averaged 12.5 rebounds per game and totaled 275 rebounds for the season. The team averaged 76.8 points per game as compared to 58.5 by their opponents.

Will Stewart goes up for a layup in the 72-48 win over Pineville as Henry Cook watches.

Coach Paul Greer plans remaining plays in a brief time out.

Eugene Dishmon gets away one of his long jump shots in the away victory over the Pineville Minutemen.

Henry Cook gets a shot away in the home win over Mullens, twice defeated by the Indians.

Ronnie Miller scores in the home victory over Mullens.

Pete Short, Indian floor general, eludes two Pineville players to get the basketball.

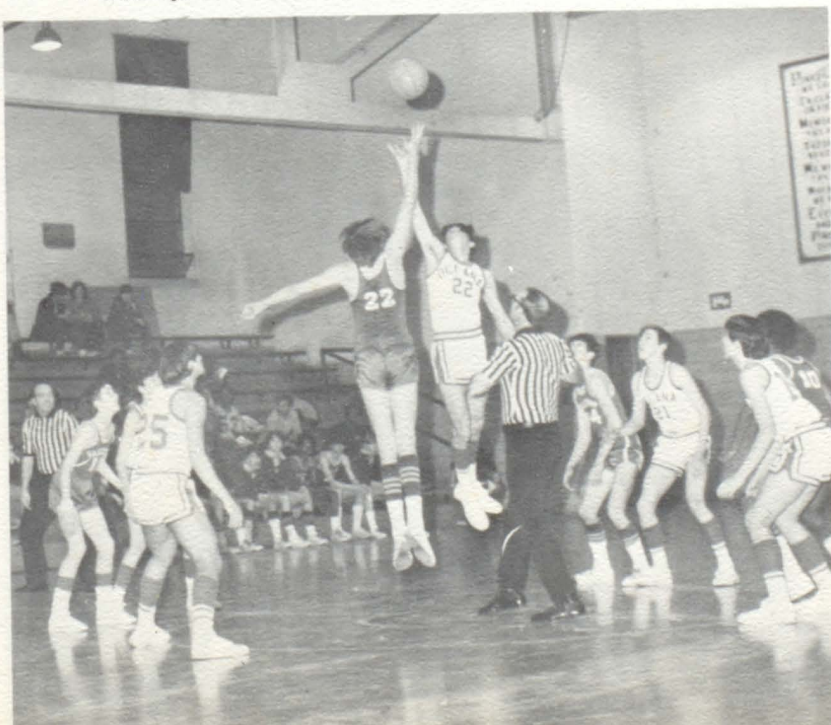

Junior hoopmen show talent and speed

Talent and speed were plentiful in the junior high basketball team. First Row: Dennis Sizemore, Jeff Dancy, Elvis Hicks, Butch Browning, Randy Whittington, John Lozier. Second Row: Coach Gene Gilliland, Joe Bullington, Guy Brunty, Donald Daniels, Bill Redden, Clettis Blankenship, and Benny Bowles.

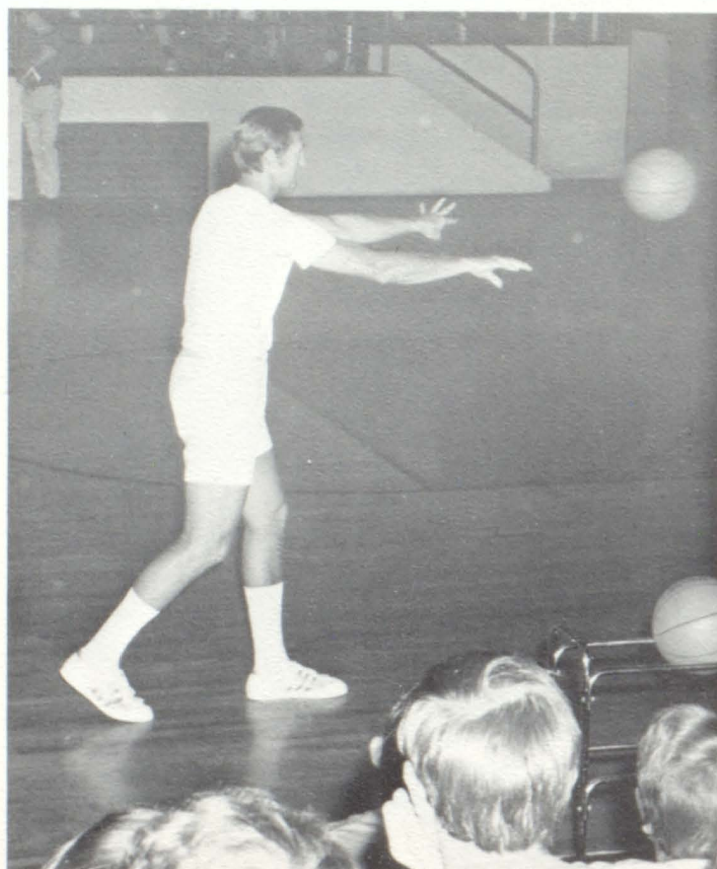

Bill Redden battles for the ball in the 60-29 victory over Fairview in the Pineville junior invitational. He scored 24 points.

Speedy Benny Bowles gets away for a layup against Fairview in the invitational.

West, Sanders conduct clinic

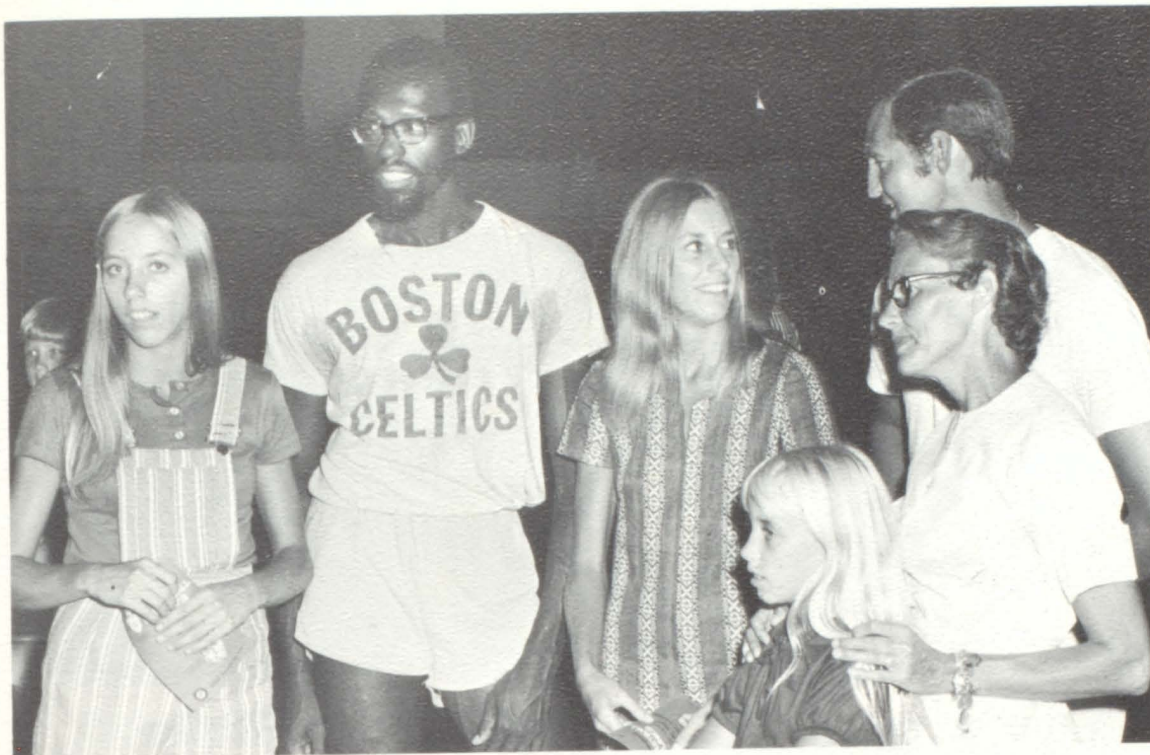

Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers demonstrates techniques at a basketball clinic held at Oceana.

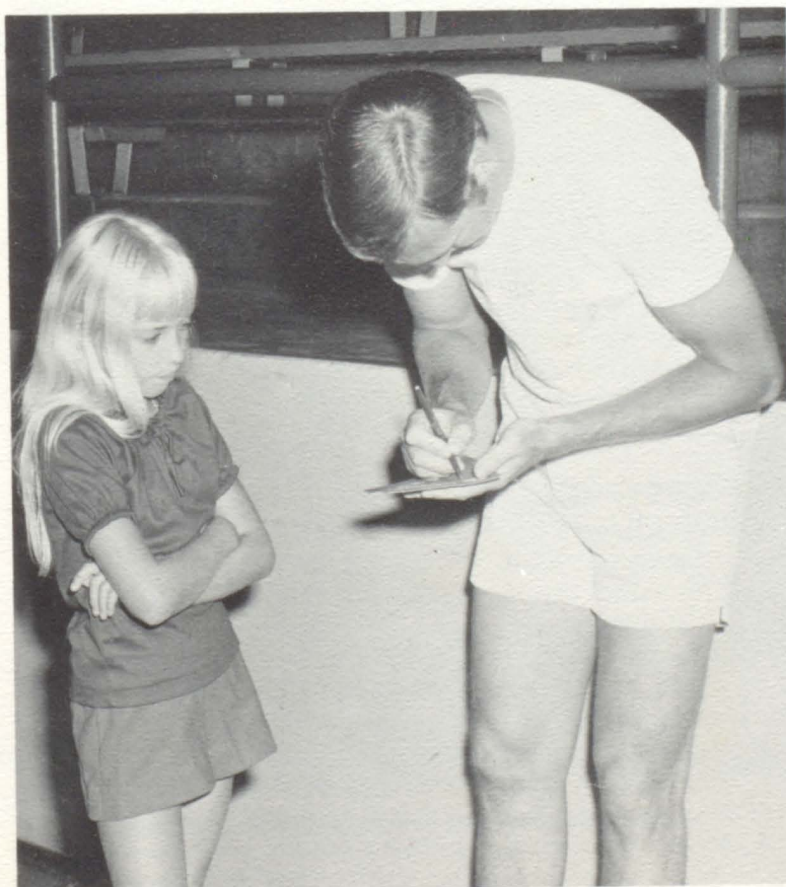

Basketball coaches, players, and hopefuls from all over the county get pointers from the master.

Tom "Satch" Sanders of the Boston Celtics gives future Oceana stars a lesson in defensive tactics. The clinic was presented by Eastern Associated as part of its program of community activities.

Oceana's first family of basketball—Paula, Betsy, Amy Jill, and Betty Greer—meet the clinic specialists. These four have learned a lot of basketball from Coach Paul Greer.

Everyone wanted the stars' autographs—Amy Jill looks on as Jerry signs.

Coach Paul Greer, who aided with the clinic, chats with West and friend.

Racing over the high hurdles are Will Stewart and Ronnie Miller. The Indians' shuttle hurdles relay team landed first place for Oceana in the state meet after soaring over opposition throughout the year.

Junior Mike Toler rolls in with a first place in the 440 run at the Coalfield Conference held at Beckley.

Cindermen race to championship

Oceana's trackmen raced to the school's first Class AA track championship by outscoring defending champion Mount Hope 39-31 to win the State Track Meet at Charleston.

Placing in the meet were: Gary Philpot who was first in the 220-yard dash and second in the 100; Ron Miller, first in the 180 low hurdles, and third in the 120 high hurdles; Wayne Basconi, first in the 880 run; and Will Stewart, fourth in the 180 low hurdles.

The Indians' shuttle hurdles relay team of Miller, Rick Anderson, Richard Cook, and Stewart took first place. Basconi, Pete Short, Richard Cook, and Mark Kanott, the two-mile relay team, also landed a first place.

The Indian cindermen had taken easy victories in all their previous meets. They won the Beckley Jaycees Relays, and breezed through the Coalfield Conference Meet held at Beckley. Oceana won the county meet for the seventh consecutive year. Oceana copped the AA Region VI crown at the meet which was helped at Oceana for the first year.

Finishing first place in the 100-yard dash at the county meet, Gary Philpot sets a new record of 10.1. He finished second in the 100 and first in the 220-yard dash at the state meet held in Charleston.

Running the last leg of the mile relay, Wayne Basconi, junior, turns it on. This speedster received first place honors in the state 880 run.

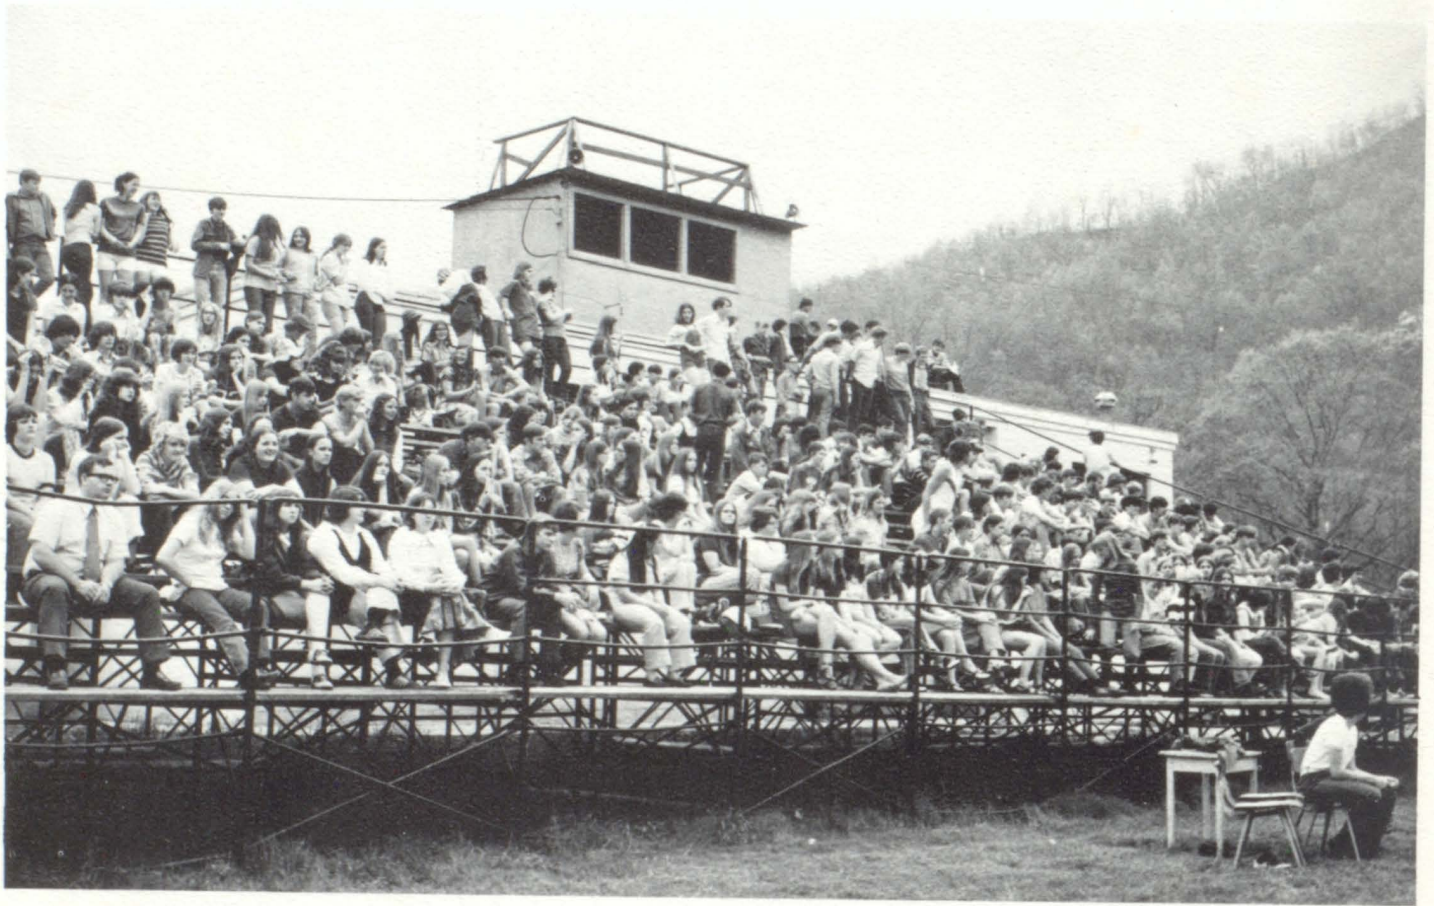

Versatile Richard Cook, member of the mile relay, two-mile relay, and shuttle hurdle relay teams, flies through the air with the greatest of ease at the county track meet.

Richard Cook passes on the baton to Wayne Basconi in the two-mile relay. The team received first place in this event at the state meet.

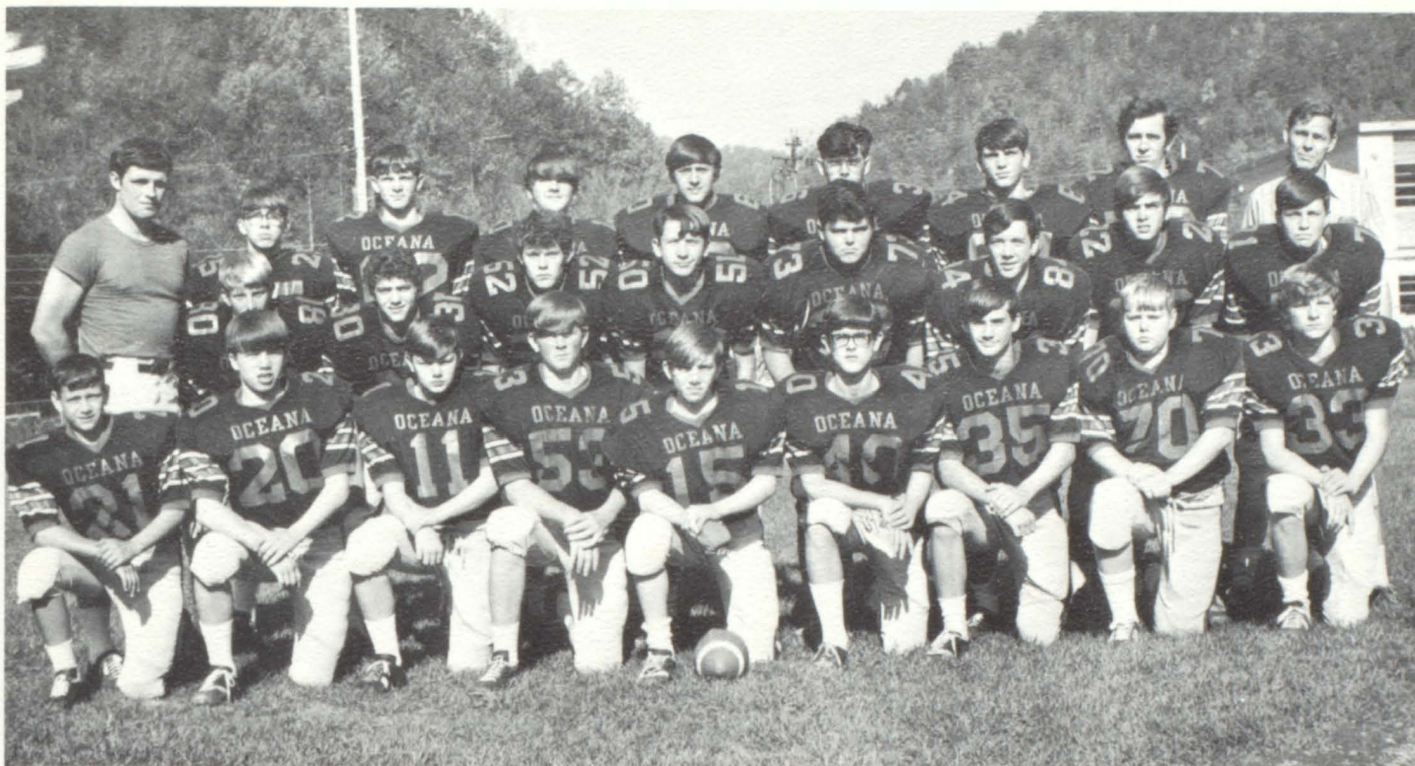

It was a great year for Indian trackmen

Next best to being in the track meet is watching the speedy cindermen capture county honors on a warm spring day.

Junior high trackmen wound up with the county title. High jumper Bill Redden places second.

Bowles qualifies for state golf tournament

This year's golfers were coached by Mike McGraw, at left. Members of the team were Craig Blankenship, Benny Bowles, Steve Acord, Harold Tracy, and Bill Harless. Bowles qualified for the state high school golf tournament after taking low medalist honors in Region Four tournament play. He shot a par 72 in the 15-school event. Oceana finished sixth in the tourney.

COMMENCEMENT

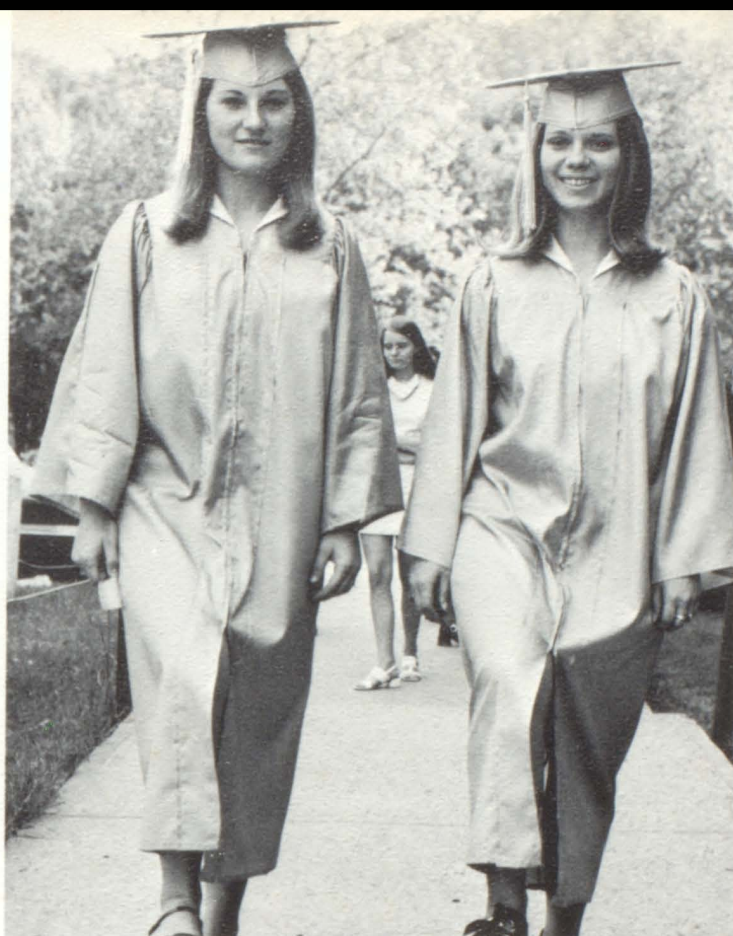

Commencement ushers were chosen from the National Honor Society. They were Debbie Meredith, Kay Halstead, Cynthia Bailey, Martha Hatfield, Paula Greer, Sue Terry, Brenda Milam, and Cheri Knea. All are junior class members.

Serving as honor guard were honor society members Wayne Basconi, Randy Short, Mickey Sizemore, Mark Boshell, and Jimmy Goble. They also assisted with presentation of senior awards.

It's a happy day for Martha Hopkins and Leisa Womack who arrive early with unexpected gifts.

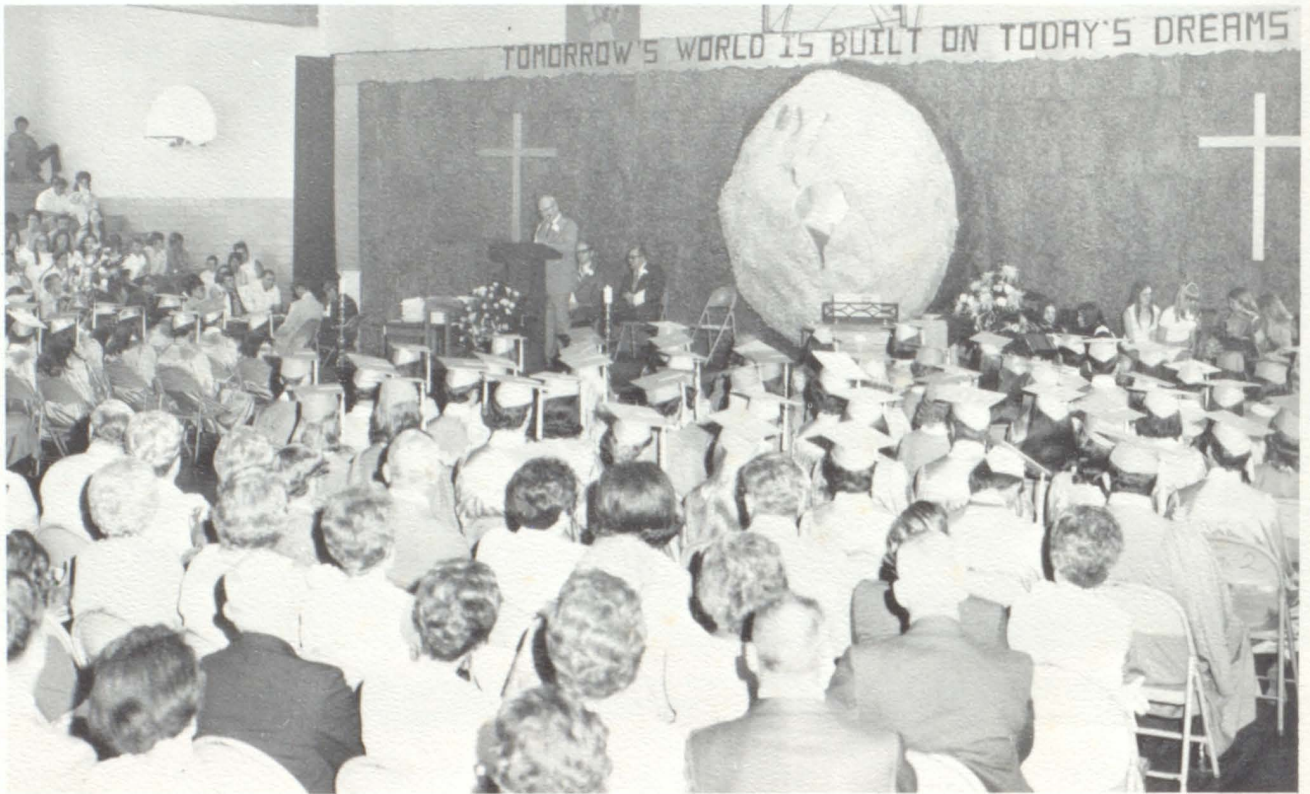

Debbie Gibson and Debbie Johnson arrive all set to take their places in the processional forming outside.

Spirits are high as the seniors gather outside for the diploma march. There's still time for a little joking.

'Tomorrow's world is built

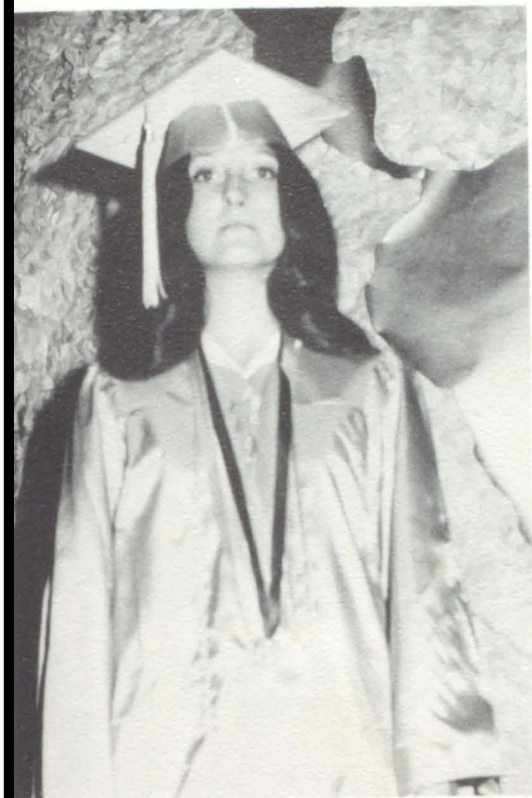

Parents and friends gather to honor the Class of '72 which makes ready to leave the school for new fields.

It's a solemn occasion for the seniors as they listen to the speaker's advice and music of the chorus.

on today's dreams'

Salutatorian Lynn Doak welcomes parents and friends of the class.

Tom Tyree gives a reading with the accompaniment of the chorus.

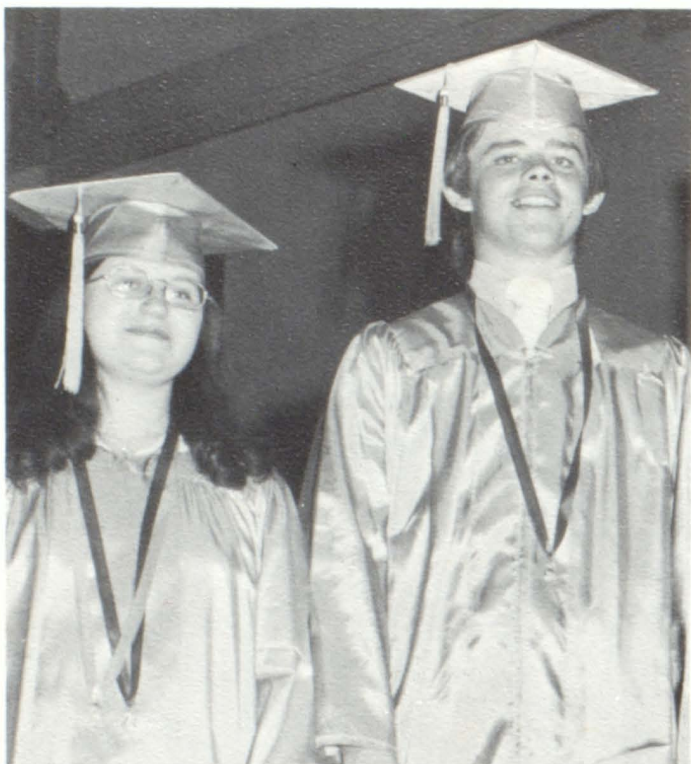

Mr. Core talks to the graduating class on "Values to Live By."

The long-awaited moment arrives at last.

Each senior departs with his own dreams for today and tomorrow.
What values will he live by and how will he build his world?

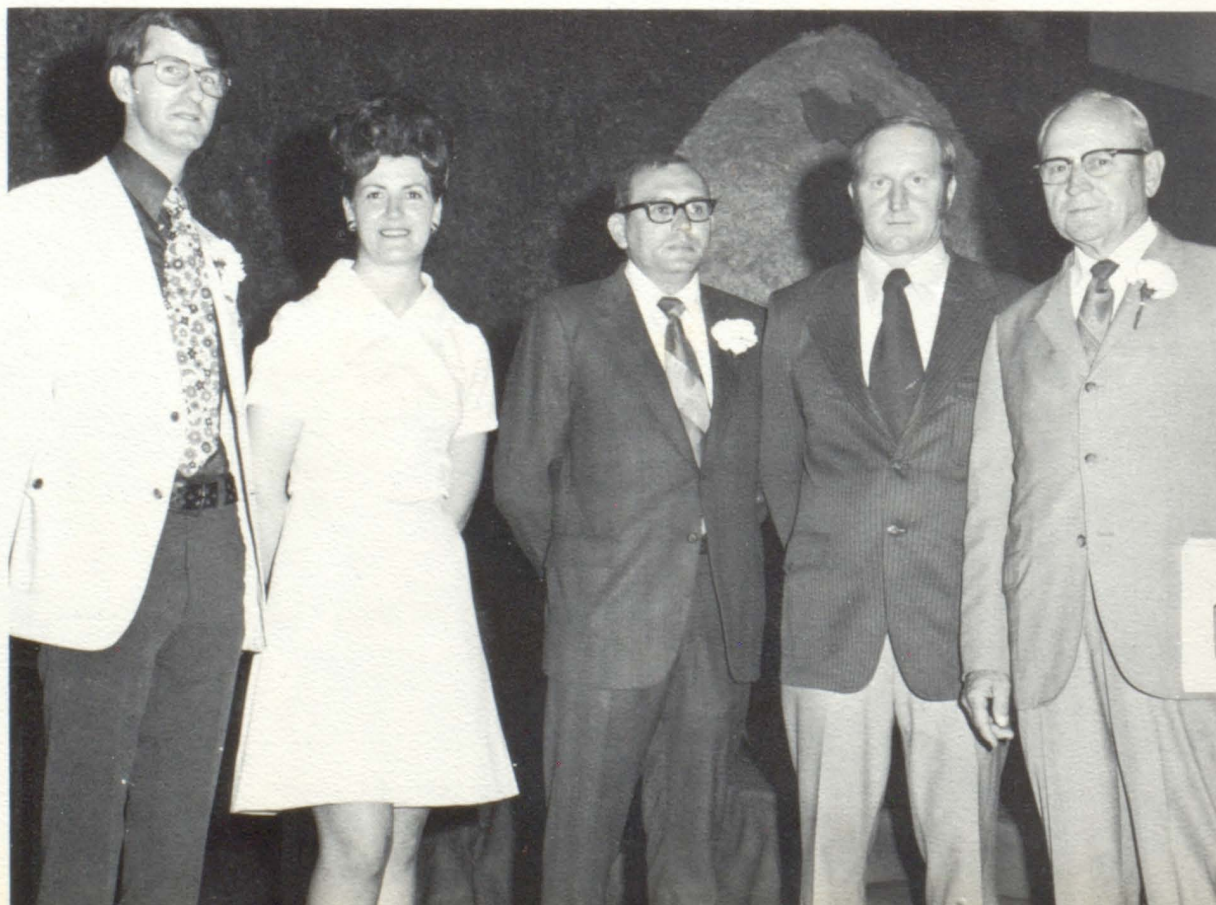

Norene Testerman and Ralph Hall shared the Tracy Hyllton scholarship which was presented at graduation.

Mrs. Jeanette Toler, senior sponsor, adjusts a cap while giving last minute instructions to the class.

Sponsors Paul Blankenship and Mrs. Jeanette Toler, Principal Ira Cook, Mr. Eric Tyree, and Mr. E. V. Core, who was commencement speaker, talk over the program following the recessional.

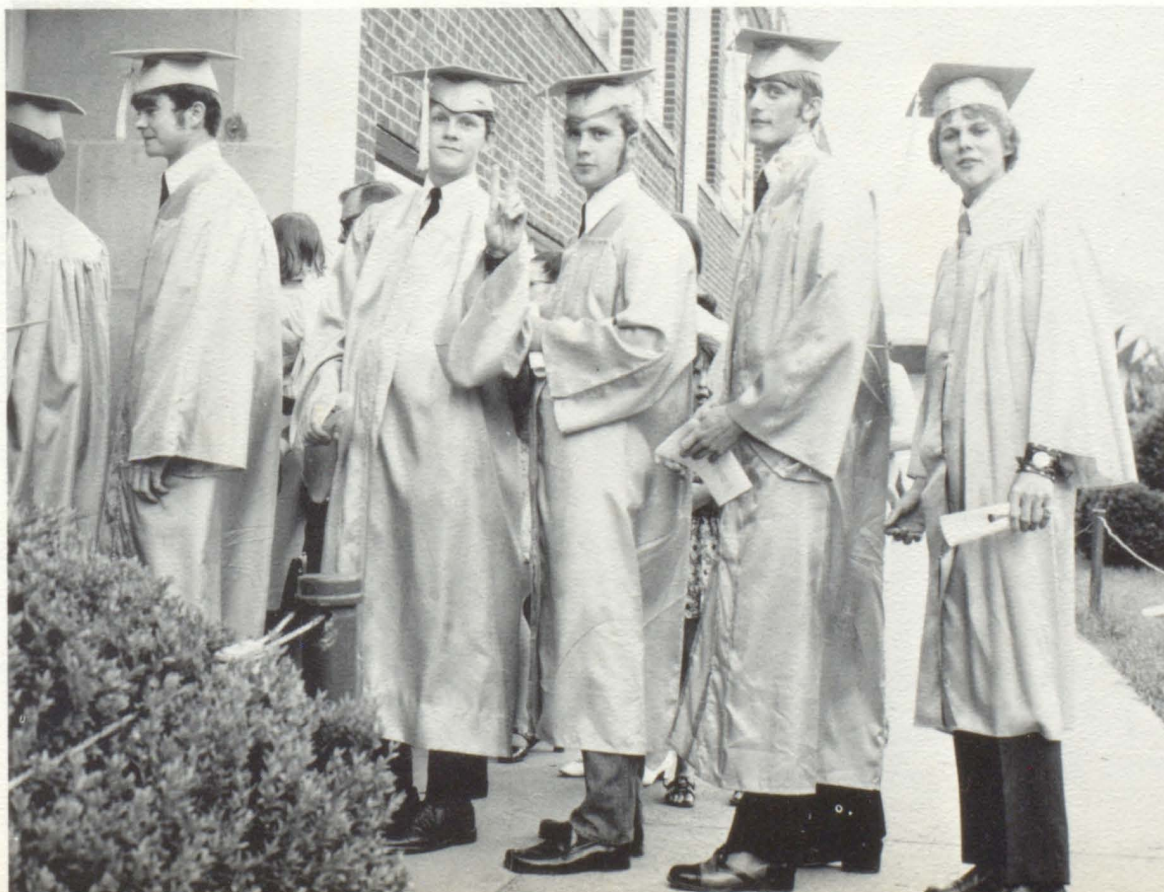

It just wouldn't be "Pomp and Circumstance" without Mr. Fred Shannon, county music supervisor, who serves as organist each year for the senior diploma march.

American Legion citizenship awards went to Norene Testerman and Tom Tyree, who have represented Oceana High in numerous activities over the past four years.

Seniors at the end of the line have a chance to do a little clowning before the processional.
